D. Other Evaluation Methods:
Within the limits outlined above, the instructor is free to set individual performance standards in rewarding for revisions, folder submission, absenteeism, required typing, etc. Each instructor will adhere to the College attendance policy and the policy on academic dishonesty as described below.

E. Grading Scale:
Instructors will assign grades based on agreed upon departmental standards.

VI. Policies:
A. Attendance Policy:
Attendance, promptness, and participation are essential to success in college courses. The general attendance policy of the College states that students must be present for at least 75 percent of scheduled class meetings in order to receive credit for the course; thus, students who miss 25 percent of class meetings will fail the course. Therefore, any student who must miss an excessive number of classes for any reason is advised to withdraw from the College under the "Mitigating Circumstances" provision as described in the PSTCC Catalog.

B. Academic Dishonesty:
Any student found engaging in an act of academic dishonesty will be promptly dismissed from the course with a grade of F.
Academic dishonesty includes the following:
Plagiarism--presenting someone else's words or ideas as your own;
Collusion--allowing other people to write, to revise, or to alter significantly the text of a paper that is supposed to be your work alone.

C. Other Policies:
Essays will be marked with numbers from the Harbrace Handbook and with instructor comments. Students are required to make all corrections according to instructor's directions.
before the grade on an essay is final. Essays, revisions, and corrections will be kept in a Harbrace folder throughout the semester and collected by the instructor at the end of the semester. The English Department does not return student folders. Students who wish to retain copies of essays should make photocopies.
