V. Evaluation:

A. Testing Procedures:

Major writing assignments will constitute a minimum of 70 percent of the final grade and will be weighted at the discretion of the instructor. At least one of these assignments will be written in class. Other in-class writings, such as responses, essay questions, letters/memos, exercises, and quizzes, as well as peer reviews, homework assignments, oral presentations, and corrections may constitute 30 percent of the final grade.

B. Laboratory Expectations: None

C. Field Work:

When feasible some assignments may require students to attend a performance or other appropriate event (such as a literary reading, museum exhibit, off-campus lecture or special program).

D. Other Evaluation Methods:

Students will be expected to participate in and lead class discussion on certain topics or make an oral presentation. Students will keep all written work in a folder which will be submitted at the end of the semester.
VI. Policies:

A. Attendance Policy:

Attendance, promptness, and participation are essential to success in college courses. The general attendance policy of the College states that students must be present for at least 75 percent of scheduled class meetings in order to receive credit for the course; thus, students who miss 25 percent of class meetings will fail the course. Therefore, any student who must miss an excessive number of classes for any reason is advised to withdraw from the College under the "Mitigating Circumstances" provision as described in the PSTCC Catalog.

B. Academic Dishonesty:

Any student found engaging in an act of academic dishonesty will be promptly dismissed from the course with a grade of F. Academic dishonesty includes the following:
- Plagiarism--presenting someone else's words or ideas as your own;
- Collusion--allowing other people to write, to revise, or to alter significantly the text of a paper that is supposed to be your work alone.

C. Correction and Return of Essay Assignments:

Essays will be marked with numbers from the Harbrace Handbook and with instructor comments. Students are required to make all corrections according to instructor's directions before the grade on an essay is final. Essays, revisions, and corrections will be kept in a Harbrace folder throughout the semester and collected by the instructor at the end of the semester. The English Department does not return student folders. Students who wish to retain copies of essays should make photocopies.
