V. Evaluation:

A. Testing Procedures:

70-80% of the final grade will be based on essays. Remaining percentage will be based on exams, quizzes, journals, presentations, and other assignments as determined by the instructor.

B. Laboratory Expectations: None

C. Field Work:

When feasible students will view a live performance of a play and tour a theater or attend another approved cultural event (such as a literary reading, museum exhibit, or workshop).

D. Other Evaluation Methods:

Students will be expected to participate in and lead class discussion of the assigned readings. Students will keep all written work in a folder which will be submitted at the end of the semester.

VI. Policies:

A. Attendance Policy:

Attendance, promptness, and participation are essential to success in college courses. The general attendance policy of the College states that students must be present for at least 75 percent of scheduled class meetings in order to receive credit for the course; thus, students who miss 25 percent of class meetings will fail the course. Therefore, any student who must miss an excessive number of classes for any reason is advised to withdraw from the College under the "Mitigating Circumstances" provision as described in the PSTCC Catalog.

B. Academic Dishonesty:

Any student found engaging in an act of academic dishonesty will be promptly dismissed from the course with a grade of F. Academic dishonesty includes the following:
- Plagiarism—presenting someone else's words or ideas as your own;
- Collusion—allowing other people to write, to revise, or to alter significantly the text of a paper that is supposed to be your work alone.

C. Correction and Return of Essay Assignments:

Essays will be marked with numbers from the Harbrace Handbook and with instructor comments. Students are required to make all corrections according to the instructor's directions before the grade on an essay is final. Essays, revisions, and corrections will be kept in a Harbrace folder throughout the semester and collected by the instructor at the end of the semester. The English Department does not return student folders. Students who wish to retain copies of essays should make photocopies.
