MASTER SYLLABUS

PUBLIC SPEAKING
SPH 2100

Class Hours: 3.0  Credit Hours: 3.0
Laboratory Hours: 0.0
Date Revised: Fall 1998

Catalog Course Description:

Principles and practices of the oral communication process with a primary emphasis on extemporaneous public speaking. The course incorporates research and planning, audience demographics, topic selection, small and large group communication, listening, reasoning, and evaluation skills.

Entry Level Standards:

The student is expected to be able to read on a college level, write using correct spelling free of major grammatical errors, and employ primary research techniques to gather information. Public Speaking (SPH 2100) is designed as an entry level course, as is its companion course Business and Professional Speaking (SPH 2400). The college transfer student is advised to consult his/her advisor and/or the core speech requirements at the four year institution he/she is applying to before enrolling in either SPH 2100 or SPH 2400.

Corequisites: ENGL 1010

Textbook(s) and Other Reference Materials Basic to the Course:

SPEAK OUT!: A Manual for Public Speaking (Current edition) by Thomas and Blocher (required) The student also needs a course folder and note cards. Additional materials may be necessary for visual aids.

NOTE: AN AUTOMATIC F ON A LATE ASSIGNMENT = 55

VI. Policies:

A. Attendance Policy:

Class attendance is mandatory in SPH 2100. No absences are excused. No exercises or quizzes can be made-up. A missed speaking assignment will result in a minimum grade letter late penalty and make-up speeches will be given the lowest priority in the daily speaking roster. Excessive absence (25% of assigned classes; PSTCC policy) will result in the student's failing the course. All classes missed over two weeks (six MWF classes, 4 TR classes, or 2 night classes) must be made up for a student to receive a passing grade. Make-up assignments are at the discretion of the instructor.

B. Course Folder:

No student will receive a grade in SPH 2100 until a completed course folder is filed with the instructor. The folder must include all student originated written materials: speech outlines, examinations, speech evaluations, exercises, quizzes, etc. The folder must also include any and all evaluations made by the instructor. Replacement of lost materials is the responsibility of the student. The folders are not returned to the student.
