Attendance is critical since if a student is not in class, s/he can not participate and will lose participation grade for the day. Additionally, the final grade will be lowered one step on the grading scale for each hour missed after six (6).

Pellissippi State Technical Community College expects students to attend all scheduled instructional activities. As a minimum, students in all courses must be present for at least 75 percent of their scheduled class and laboratory meetings in order to receive credit for the course.

B. Academic Dishonesty:

Academic misconduct committed either directly or indirectly by an individual or group is subject to disciplinary action. Prohibited activities include but are not limited to the following practices: cheating, including but not limited to unauthorized assistance from material, people, or devices when taking a test, quiz or examination; writing papers or reports; solving problems; or completing academic assignments. In addition to other possible disciplinary sanctions that may be imposed as a result of academic misconduct, the instructor has the authority to assign either (1) an F or zero for the assignment or (2) an F for the course.

C. Accommodations for disabilities:

If you need accommodation because of a disability, if you have emergency medical information to share, or if you need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please inform the instructor immediately. Privately after class or in the instructor's office.

To request accommodations students must register with Services for Students with Disabilities: Goins 127 or 131, Phone: (865) 539-7153 or (865) 694-6751 Voice/TDD.

D. Other Policies:

Spanish will be used in the classroom to the greatest extent possible and students are expected to be prepared each day to do the assigned material in Spanish.

CDs:
The CD program that accompanies Interacciones must be purchased separately at the bookstore.

Quizzes:
May be given at the beginning or at the end of class. Chapter exams will be given at the end of each chapter to test student proficiency of material covered in the chapter. At the end of the course there will be a comprehensive final exam that will count the same as one chapter exam. No make-up quizzes or exams will be given. At the end of the course, one quiz and one exam will be dropped before the final grades are calculated. If a student misses a chapter exam s/he will be required to take the final exam.

Homework:
Graded homework is due the day of the corresponding chapter exam. Each student will be allowed a next class day grace period for homework one time only. Any other late homework will not be accepted and will be counted as a zero. Incomplete homework will be counted as late.
