V. Evaluation:

A. Testing Procedures: 20% of grade

At the end of the semester the student must present a polished performance of two memorized pieces. Additional material and pertinent technical exercises can be included at the teacher's discretion if the student's background and potential warrant it.

B. Laboratory Expectations: 70% of grade

Five hours of outside practice per week are a minimal requirement for this course. At each lesson during the semester the student is required to perform for the instructor and to apply suggestions for improvement in subsequent lessons. The average of the weekly lesson grades reflects the student's weekly preparation and technical/artistic improvement.

C. Field Work: 10% of grade

During the semester the student is required to attend two live performances of contemporary keyboardists during the semester. The keyboardist can appear as a soloist or as part of a group. A one-page paper, in which the student evaluates the performance and applies concepts studied in class, should be turned in at the lesson following each performance.

VI. Policies:

Attendance Policy:

Pellissippi State Technical Community College expects students to attend all scheduled instructional activities. As a minimum, students in all courses must be present for at least 75 percent of their scheduled class and laboratory meetings in order to receive credit for the course. This applies to BOTH excused and unexcused absences. Departmental policy states that teachers will not teach make-up lessons unless the instructor has to cancel a lesson or unless the student has to miss a lesson in order to participate in a school function. In the event that a student's involvement in a school function necessitates his missing a regular lesson, it is the student's responsibility to inform the instructor one week in advance and to arrange for rescheduling at that time. Rescheduled lessons will be at a mutually convenient time.

B. Academic Dishonesty Policy:

Academic misconduct committed either directly or indirectly by an individual or group is subject to disciplinary action. Prohibited activities include but are not limited to the following practices: Cheating, including but not limited to unauthorized assistance from material, people, or devices when taking a test, quiz, or examination; writing papers or reports; solving problems; or completing academic assignments. In addition to other possible disciplinary sanctions that may be imposed as a result of academic misconduct, the instructor has the authority to assign either (1) an F or zero for the assignment or (2) an F for the course.

C. Accommodations for disabilities:

If you need accommodations because of a disability, if you have emergency medical information to share, or if you need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please inform the instructor immediately. Please see the instructor privately after class or in his/her office. Students must present a current accommodation plan from a staff member in Services for Students with Disabilities (SSWD) in order to receive accommodations.
in this course. Services for Students with Disabilities may be contacted by going to Goins 127 or 131 or by phone: 694-6751(Voice/TTY) or 539-7153.
