B. Laboratory Expectations:

Students must complete the required number of seminar, conference, and laboratory hours.

C. Field Work:

Students must complete work samples, time log, periodic written reports, oral reports, presentations, and final report; and maintain professionalism at all times.

D. Other Evaluation Methods:

1. The instructor will provide full details the first week of class via a syllabus supplement.
2. All tests and papers will be graded for spelling and English usage in addition to content and format.
3. Any student encountering academic difficulty during the term is strongly encouraged to meet with the instructor to discuss options and solutions.

VI. Policies:

A. Attendance Policy:

Students are expected to demonstrate the same level of professionalism in the internship scheduled seminars and conferences as they would in a law office position. Pellissippi State Technical Community College expects students to attend all scheduled instructional activities. As a minimum, students in all courses must be present for at least 75 percent of their scheduled classes and laboratory meetings in order to receive credit for the course. (Pellissippi State Online Catalog)

B. Academic Dishonesty:

Cheating of any type will not be tolerated and will become an automatic zero on that paper or test. Repetition of cheating will result in an F for the final grade. (Pellissippi State Online Catalog)

C Ethics:

Nowhere are personal and professional ethics as important as in legal work, where court rules require avoiding even the appearance of unethical conduct. Verified unethical conduct at the internship site may result in removal from the internship and an F in the course.

D. Accommodations for Disabilities:

Students who need accommodations because of a disability, have emergency medical information to share, or need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated should inform the instructor immediately, privately after class or in her or his office. Students must present a current accommodation plan from a staff member in Services for Students with Disabilities (SSWD) in order to receive accommodations in this course. Services for Students with Disabilities may be contacted by going to Goins 134 or 126 or by phone: 694-6751 (Voice/TTY) or 539-7153. More information is available at www.pstcc.edu/departments/swd/.

E. Other Policies:

Timeliness: Due dates are crucially important in any law office. Missing a due date can cause disastrous consequences for clients. An equal level of professionalism will be expected regarding seminar work. Late papers or oral presentations will not be accepted without specific approval from the instructor.

Professional Appearance: Internships occur in a professional legal environment. Students are expected to dress in a neat, professional manner at all times.

Computer Usage guidelines: College-owned or –operated computing resources are provided for use by students of Pellissippi State. All students are responsible for the usage of Pellissippi State’s computing resources in an effective, efficient, ethical and lawful manner. (Pellissippi State Online Catalog)
