VI. Policies:

A. Attendance Policy:

Pellissippi State expects students to attend all scheduled instructional activities. As a minimum, students in all courses (excluding distance learning courses) must be present for at least 75 percent of their scheduled class and laboratory meetings in order to receive credit for the course. Individual departments/programs/disciplines, with the approval of the vice president of Learning, may have requirements that are more stringent. In very specific circumstances, an appeal of the policy may be addressed to the head of the department in which the course was taken. If further action is warranted, the appeal may be addressed to the vice president of Learning.

B. Academic Dishonesty:

Students are expected to abide by the sanctions listed in the current college catalog under the Academic and Classroom Misconduct guidelines.

C. Accommodations for disabilities:

If you need accommodations because of a disability, if you have emergency medical information to share, or if you need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please inform the instructor immediately. Please see the instructor privately after class or in his/her office. Students must present a current accommodation plan from a staff member in Services for Students with Disabilities (SSWD) in order to receive accommodations in this course. Services for Students with Disabilities may be contacted by going to Goins 127 or 131 or by phone: 694-6751(Voice/TTY) or 539-7153.

D. Other Policies:

MATERIALS: The student will also need workout clothes, water bottle, and exercise mat or heavy towel on which to work. Hydration is especially important for this class and this item will be required of everyone. Notebook and writing tools.

PARTICIPATION: You will be expected to participate in all exercises. Should you be unable to do any of the exercises for reasons of temporary injury or illness, please inform the instructor. If, in the unlikely event, you should injure yourself during an exercise, stop immediately and inform the instructor. Remember, it's your body and the only one you have! Much of the work done in this class will involve physical exercise, therefore, if you have any pre-existing injuries or health conditions, let the instructor know before class begins. There will, by necessity, be some physical contact with both the instructor and your classmates. This contact will be in the form of various movement disciplines and exercises. The contact will be used only in regards to preparing you for performance.

CLOTHING: Please wear comfortable clothing. Your choice of clothing should ultimately allow great freedom of movement.
