IV. Evaluation:

A. Testing Procedures: 100% of grade

1. Notebook with notes and class activities/assignments (150 points) 17% of the grade: As one of the major projects for this course, you will be responsible for the development and maintenance of a course notebook/portfolio (2 inch, 3 ring binder). The purpose of this project is to keep course materials organized and readily available. The notebook must include a title page, table of contents, 10 divider tabs, course syllabus, addendum, class notes, handouts, assignments, special projects, papers, etc. Take notes on the presentations and the chapters every week and put the notes in your portfolio in the correct section (for example, notes on taking tests go in the Tests section). Complete all class activities in your portfolio in the correct section. Did I mention – Keep Up With Your Portfolio!

2. Time Planner (50 points) 5.7% of the grade: Each student will be required to keep a time management organizer during the semester to record time for work, study, assignments, leisure, appointments, and daily “To Do” items. The organizer will be submitted for evaluation for completeness and usefulness.

3. Self-Assessment (100 points) 11.5% of the grade
4. Group Project (150 points) 17% of the grade: You will be working in teams to develop and deliver a group presentation on one of the chapters/subjects covered in this class. This is an opportunity for you to develop team-building skills, critical and creative thinking, problem-solving, communication, and leadership skills.

5. Academic Plan (150 points) 17% of the grade: Your academic plan includes:
   1. Personal Mission and Goals Statements
   2. Two-year course plan or sequential list of classes to take to complete major or degree
   3. Printed schedule for Spring Semester classes
   4. Form signed by your assigned advisor indicating your completion of an advising appointment.
   5. Applicable articulation agreements and/or

6. Group Project Subject Activities: Each Group Project subject (e.g.s. Reading, Writing, Memory) has activities associated with it. The number of points for these activities vary.

7. Course exit survey (30 points) 3.4% of the grade

Evaluation: Each assignment will be evaluated for:
- Content Accuracy - Is the information correct?
- Completeness – did you answer all of the questions? Always look at the assignment as you are doing your work to ensure you completed it as required.
- Detailed - Are statements explained with supporting reasons and details?
- Clarity - Is the information clearly stated? Do responses show lots of thought?
- Appearance - How does it look? Does it use good grammar and spelling?
- Creativity – Does it present new ideas? Creative appearance? Reflect personality?

Late Assignments: Any assignment turned in late (after class on the due date) will result in loss of points and reduction in credit. Good organization and time management skills will enable you to meet required deadlines in college and in the work force.

V. Policies:
A. Attendance Policy:

Pellissippi State expects students to attend all scheduled instructional activities. As a minimum, students in all courses (excluding distance learning courses) must be present for at least 75 percent of their scheduled class and laboratory meetings in order to receive credit for the course. Individual departments/programs/disciplines, with the approval of the vice president of Academic Affairs, may have requirements that are more stringent. In very specific circumstances, an appeal of the policy may be addressed to the head of the department in which the course was taken. If further action is warranted, the appeal may be addressed to the vice president of Academic Affairs.

As you will learn in your COLL 1500 class, regular attendance in any college class is one of the most important indicators of your success. Therefore, you have a great deal of power in whether you will pass a given class or not, and learning how to succeed in college is what this course is all about!

Below, you will find the attendance policy for COLL 1500. Be sure to be extremely familiar with this policy, as the department enforces this policy strictly. Keep up with your absences and tardies on both your course progress chart and your planner.

WARNING! WARNING!! WARNING!!!

Penalties for Excessive Absences:
- 3 day/week classes = minus one letter grade for each absence after 7 absences
- 2 day/week classes = minus one letter grade for each absence after 4 absences
- 1 day/week class = minus one letter grade for each absence after 2 absences

Maximum Absences Permitted (per PSCC policy)
- 3 day/week classes: 11 absences permitted (Students who have 12 absences will FAIL.)
- 2 day/week classes: 7 absences permitted (Students who have 8 absences will FAIL.)
- 1 day/week classes: 4 absences permitted (Students who have 5 absences will FAIL.)

B. Academic Dishonesty:

Academic misconduct committed either directly or indirectly by an individual or group is subject to disciplinary action. Prohibited activities include but are not limited to the following practices:

- Cheating, including but not limited to unauthorized assistance from material, people, or devices when taking a test, quiz, or examination; writing papers or reports; solving problems; or completing academic assignments.
- Plagiarism, including but not limited to paraphrasing, summarizing, or directly quoting published or unpublished work of another person, including online or computerized services, without proper documentation of the original source.
- Purchasing or otherwise obtaining prewritten essays, research papers, or materials prepared by another person or agency that sells term papers or other academic materials to be presented as one’s own work.
- Taking an exam for another student.
- Providing others with information and/or answers regarding exams, quizzes, homework or other classroom assignments unless explicitly authorized by the instructor.
- Any of the above occurring within the Web or distance learning environment.

C. Accommodations for disabilities:

Students who need accommodations because of a disability, have emergency medical information to share, or need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated should inform the instructor immediately, privately after class or in her or his office. Students must present a current accommodation plan from a staff member in Services for Students with Disabilities (SSWD) in order to receive accommodations in this course. Services for Students with Disabilities may be contacted by going to Goins 127, 132, 134, 135, 131 or by phone: 539-7153 or TTY 694-6429. More information is available at http://www.pstcc.edu/sswd/.

D. Other Policies:

Computer Usage Guidelines:
College-owned or operated computing resources are provided for use by students of Pellissippi State. All students are responsible for the usage of Pellissippi State's computing resources in an effective, efficient, ethical and lawful manner.
