V. Evaluation:

A. Testing Procedures: 50% of grade

There will be two written exams encompassing lecture, text and handouts. The tests will cover both theory and practical application. Each test will cover text material, associated lecture material, and student presentations. Each test will count for 25% of the final grade. Quizzes may be given at the discretion of the instructor.

B. Laboratory Expectations: 25% of grade

Written work will account for another 25% of the student's evaluation. This includes:
- A one-page press release for a campus organization.
- A three-minute speech Pres. Edwards could give to a meeting of 100 Tennessee high school seniors to learn about Careers for the 21st Century.
- Three summaries of a relevant article published within the previous year in The Wall Street Journal, Public Relations Journal, Advertising Age, or Business Week.

C. Field Work: 25% of grade

Another 25% of the student's grade will be based on participation in a public relations project involving two- and three-person teams.

VI. Policies:

Attendance Policy:

Pellissippi State expects students to attend all scheduled instructional activities. As a minimum, students in all courses (excluding distance learning courses) must be present for at least 75 percent of their scheduled class and laboratory meetings in order to receive credit for the course. Individual departments/programs/disciplines, with the approval of the vice president of Academic Affairs, may have requirements that are more stringent. In very specific circumstances, an appeal of the policy may be addressed to the head of the department in which the course was taken. If further action is warranted, the appeal may be addressed to the vice president of Academic Affairs.

B. Academic Dishonesty:

Academic misconduct committed either directly or indirectly by an individual or group is subject to disciplinary action. Prohibited activities include but are not limited to the following practices:
• Cheating, including but not limited to unauthorized assistance from material, people, or devices when taking a test, quiz, or examination; writing papers or reports; solving problems; or completing academic assignments.
• Plagiarism, including but not limited to paraphrasing, summarizing, or directly quoting published or unpublished work of another person, including online or computerized services, without proper documentation of the original source.
• Purchasing or otherwise obtaining prewritten essays, research papers, or materials prepared by another person or agency that sells term papers or other academic materials to be presented as one’s own work.
• Taking an exam for another student.
• Providing others with information and/or answers regarding exams, quizzes, homework or other classroom assignments unless explicitly authorized by the instructor.
• Any of the above occurring within the Web or distance learning environment.

C. Accommodations for disabilities:

Students who need accommodations because of a disability, have emergency medical information to share, or need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated should inform the instructor immediately, privately after class or in her or his office. Students must present a current accommodation plan from a staff member in Services for Students with Disabilities (SSWD) in order to receive accommodations in this course. Services for Students with Disabilities may be contacted by going to Goins 127, 132, 134, 135, 131 or by phone: 539-7153 or TTY 694-6429. More information is available at http://www.pstcc.edu/sswd/.
