22. Develop a network diagram for a mock project using both the activity-in-the-box and the activity-on-the-arrow formats. (Ch.5) A,C,D,E

23. Describe what < duration> are and calculate them using probability theory. (Ch.6) C,D,E

24. Define the term slack as applied to a particular activity. (Ch.6) A,C,D

25. Discuss the difference between positive slack and negative slack. (Ch.6) A,C,D

26. Define the term total slack as applied to a path. (Ch.6) A,C,D

27. Define the term critical path. (Ch.6) A,C,D

28. Calculate the ES, EF, and LF times and the slack for each activity in a mock project. (Ch.6) A,C,D,E

29. Identify the critical path for a mock project. (Ch.6) A,C,D,E

30. Explain the importance of continually monitoring the progress of a project. (Ch.7) A,B,C,D

31. Describe the four-step approach to schedule control. (Ch.7) A,B,C,D

32. Discuss the importance of resource considerations when developing a project plan. (Ch.8) A,B,C,D

33. Define technical constraints and resource constraints. (Ch.8) A,C,D

34. Describe what is meant by resource leveling or smoothing. (Ch.8) A,C,D,E

35. Describe what is meant by resource-limited scheduling. (Ch.8) A,C,D,E
36. Explain why it is necessary to develop a baseline budget for a project. (Ch.9) A,B,C,D

37. List and describe the items that should be included in the cost section of a project proposal. (Ch.9) A,C,D,E

38. Define and calculate TBC, CBC, CAC, CEV, CPI, CV, and FCAC. (Ch.9) A,C,D,E

* Capital letters after Expected Student Learning Outcomes reference the course goals listed above.

IV. Evaluation:

A. Testing Procedures: 50% of grade

V. Policies:

A. Attendance Policy:

Pellissippi State expects students to attend all scheduled instructional activities. As a minimum, students in all courses (excluding distance learning courses) must be present for at least 75 percent of their scheduled class and laboratory meetings in order to receive credit for the course. Individual departments/programs/disciplines, with the approval of the vice president of Academic Affairs, may have requirements that are more stringent. In very specific circumstances, an appeal of the policy may be addressed to the head of the department in which the course was taken. If further action is warranted, the appeal may be addressed to the vice president of Academic Affairs.

B. Academic Dishonesty:

Academic misconduct committed either directly or indirectly by an individual or group is subject to disciplinary action. Prohibited activities include but are not limited to the following practices:
• Cheating, including but not limited to unauthorized assistance from material, people, or devices when taking a test, quiz, or examination; writing papers or reports; solving problems; or completing academic assignments.
• Plagiarism, including but not limited to paraphrasing, summarizing, or directly quoting published or unpublished work of another person, including online or computerized services, without proper documentation of the original source.
• Purchasing or otherwise obtaining prewritten essays, research papers, or materials prepared by another person or agency that sells term papers or other academic materials to be presented as one’s own work.
• Taking an exam for another student.
• Providing others with information and/or answers regarding exams, quizzes, homework or other classroom assignments unless explicitly authorized by the instructor.
• Any of the above occurring within the Web or distance learning environment.

C. Accommodations for disabilities:

Students who need accommodations because of a disability, have emergency medical information to share, or need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated should inform the instructor immediately, privately after class or in her or his office. Students must present a current accommodation plan from a staff member in Services for Students with Disabilities (SSWD) in order to receive accommodations in this course. Services for Students with Disabilities may be contacted by going to Goins 127, 132, 134, 135, 131 or by phone: 539-7153 or TTY 694-6429. More information is available at http://www.pstcc.edu/sswd.

D. Other Policies:
