IV. Evaluation:

A. Testing Procedures: 60 percent

Timed application tests will be given on both the midterm exam and the final exam. The application tests will consist of problems similar to the exercises and unit applications in the textbook. The average of the two application tests will count 90 percent of the testing grade. A penalty of 10 percent of the total points possible will be deducted for every 15 minutes that a student goes over the allotted time for the midterm or final exam.

Shortcut tests will be given on both the midterm exam and the final exam. The shortcut tests are written exams over shortcuts used in Word. The average of the two shortcut tests will count as 10 percent of the testing grade.
MAKEUP POLICY: Tests CANNOT be made up and a grade of zero will be applied to the missed test unless prior approval by instructor to take test at later date

B. Laboratory Expectations:

This college-level course is structured as a lecture-format class. You will be expected to do lab work in addition to class time to complete assignments. Occasionally, time will be allowed at the instructor's discretion to complete assignments in class. Open labs are available at all campuses. Check posted hours.

C. Field Work:

N/A

D. Other Evaluation Methods: 40 percent

(Project Reviews, Homework, Graded Exercises, Quizzes, Integrated Computer Projects, Project Presentations)

Project Reviews consist of problems over unit topics in the textbook. A point system of grading will be utilized for the project reviews based upon the amount of work done and accuracy of work. Selected application exercises will be assigned as homework. Homework must be completed in its entirety and will not be accepted after the due date.

Quizzes using D2L will be given over each lesson and will consist of written questions. In addition shortcut quizzes will be given over shortcuts in Word. Quizzes cannot be made up and a grade of zero will be given for missed quizzes.

Graded exercises will be assigned and a point system of grading will be utilized based upon the amount of work done and accuracy of work. These exercises cannot be made up unless prior approval by the instructor. Project Reviews, homework, quizzes, and graded exercises will account for 35 percent of the other evaluation methods.

Integrated projects will consist of business problems that will utilize Microsoft office. Project Presentations will consist of group presentations over other Microsoft products. Integrated projects and project presentations will account 65 for percent of the total grade. Work will not be accepted after the due date and a grade of zero will be applied to any work not submitted.

V. Policies:

A. Attendance Policy:

Pellissippi State expects students to attend all scheduled instructional activities. As a minimum, students in all courses (excluding distance learning courses) must be present for at least 75 percent of their scheduled class and laboratory meetings in order to receive credit for the course. Individual departments/programs/disciplines, with the approval of the vice president of Academic Affairs, may have requirements that are more stringent. In very specific circumstances, an appeal of the policy may be addressed to the head of the department in which the course was taken. If further action is warranted, the appeal may be addressed to the vice president of Academic Affairs.

B. Academic Dishonesty:

Academic misconduct committed either directly or indirectly by an individual or group is subject to disciplinary action. Prohibited activities include but are not limited to the following practices:

• Cheating, including but not limited to unauthorized assistance from material, people, or devices when taking a test, quiz, or examination; writing papers or reports; solving problems; or completing academic assignments.
• Plagiarism, including but not limited to paraphrasing, summarizing, or directly quoting published or unpublished work of another person, including online or computerized services, without proper documentation of the original source.
• Purchasing or otherwise obtaining prewritten essays, research papers, or materials prepared by another person or agency that sells term papers or other academic materials to be presented as one’s own work.
• Taking an exam for another student.
• Providing others with information and/or answers regarding exams, quizzes, homework or other classroom assignments unless explicitly authorized by the instructor.
• Any of the above occurring within the Web or distance learning environment.

Please see the Pellissippi State Policies and Procedures Manual, Policy 04:02:00 Academic/Classroom Conduct and Disciplinary Sanctions for the complete policy.

C. Accommodations for disabilities:

Students that need accommodations because of a disability, have emergency medical information to share, or need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated should inform the instructor immediately, privately after class or in her or his office. Students must present a current accommodation plan from a staff member in Disability Services (DS) in order to receive accommodations in this course. Disability Services may be contacted by sending email to disabilityservices@pstihe.edu, or by visiting Alexander 130. More information is available at http://www.pstihe.edu/sswd/.

D. Other Policies:

Computer Usage Guidelines:
College-owned or -operated computing resources are provided for use by students of Pellissippi State. All students are responsible for the usage of Pellissippi State’s computing resources in an effective, efficient, ethical and lawful manner.
