E. Grading Scale:
V. Policies

A. Attendance Policy:

Pellissippi State expects students to attend all scheduled instructional activities. As a minimum, students in all courses (excluding distance learning courses) must be present for at least 75 percent of their scheduled class and laboratory meetings in order to receive credit for the course. Individual departments/programs/disciplines, with the approval of the vice president of Academic Affairs, may have requirements that are more stringent. In very specific circumstances, an appeal of the policy may be addressed to the head of the department in which the course was taken. If further action is warranted, the appeal may be addressed to the vice president of Academic Affairs.

B. Academic Dishonesty:

Academic misconduct committed either directly or indirectly by an individual or group is subject to disciplinary action. Prohibited activities include but are not limited to the following practices:

- Cheating, including but not limited to unauthorized assistance from material, people, or devices when taking a test, quiz, or examination; writing papers or reports; solving problems; or completing academic assignments.
- Plagiarism, including but not limited to paraphrasing, summarizing, or directly quoting published or unpublished work of another person, including online or computerized services, without proper documentation of the original source.
- Purchasing or otherwise obtaining prewritten essays, research papers, or materials prepared by another person or agency that sells term papers or other academic materials to be presented as one’s own work.
- Taking an exam for another student.
- Providing others with information and/or answers regarding exams, quizzes, homework or other classroom assignments unless explicitly authorized by the instructor.
- Any of the above occurring within the Web or distance learning environment.

Please see the Pellissippi State Policies and Procedures Manual, Policy 04:02:00 Academic/Classroom Conduct and Disciplinary Sanctions for the complete policy.

C. Accommodations for disabilities:

Students that need accommodations because of a disability, have emergency medical information to share, or need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated should inform the instructor immediately, privately after class or in her or his office. Students must present a current accommodation plan from a staff member in Disability Services (DS) in order to receive accommodations in this course. Disability Services may be contacted by sending email to disabilityservices@pstcc.edu, or by visiting Alexander 130. More information is available at http://www.pstcc.edu/sswd/.

D. Other Policies:

Attendance Policy:
Two absences will be allowed. On the third and subsequent absences, four points will be deducted from the final total. Students with five or more absences will not pass the course. Students who fail to participate in assigned activities will be counted as absent. Students who fail to participate in assigned activities will be counted as absent.

Tardiness/Lateness Policy:
Students are expected to be on time for class. Students late for class will have points deducted from the participation total. Ten minutes late will result in a tardy. Three tardies equal an absence. Twenty minutes late will result in an absence.

Injury Policy:
Students injured during class must inform the instructor immediately. An accident/incident report must be filed. This applies to all injuries no matter how minor.

Gum, Food, Drink, etc. Policy:
In accordance with the guidelines of the Student Recreation Center, any type of chewing gum, tobacco products, food, or drinks are not allowed in Physical Education classes. The exception would be that WATER is allowed in the weight room provided that it is in a spill-proof container.

Make-up Policy:
1. After one week, students will not be allowed to make-up written examinations.
2. With documentation, students will be allowed to make-up absences. Make-up sessions should be supervised and consist of activities engaged in during the sessions that the student missed.

All PHED courses are available to PSCC faculty and students in the online course management system, D2L. Faculty members are trained to use all facets of the online learning system and are encouraged to use the system to deliver instruction and accept course work. Thus, faculty and students are able to access their courses, contact one another, hold class discussions, and submit assignments in the online environment. In the event of a closure of the college, all courses will continue uninterrupted in the online environment. It is each student’s responsibility to check both his/her PSCC email and his/her online course for announcements, assignments, and deadlines if the college is closed.
