Textbooks(s) and Other Course Materials

Note: The ISBN numbers given above are for the purchase of the hardback version of the textbook and the required online homework access through WileyPLUS individually. Students in the traditional classroom sections are required to have access to the textbook (through either a hardback copy or e-textbook) and WileyPLUS. A student in a traditional section may purchase these items together using one of the three following options:

- All Access Pass providing an access code to a downloadable/offline e-textbook, WileyPLUS and printed end of the chapter problems (that can be used in class); ISBN: 978-1-118-63861-3.

Students in the online section of the course may not want a hardback version of the textbook and can get access to the e-textbook and online homework by purchasing WileyPLUS only. ISBN: 978-1-118-58077-6. Students in the online section are welcome to purchase a hardback version of the course textbook for reading course material. However, the numbers on individual homework assignments in WileyPLUS may be different from those that appear in the textbook.

3. Accounting paper, 2 column

4. Basic Calculator (Note: programmable calculators, such as TI-8x and 9x series, electronic devices, computers, and cell phones may not be used on exams in this course).

Policies

Attendance Policy

Pellissippi State expects students to attend all scheduled instructional activities. As a minimum, students in all courses (excluding distance learning courses) must be present for at least 75 percent of their scheduled class and laboratory meetings in order to receive credit for the course. Individual departments/programs/disciplines, with the approval of the vice president of Academic Affairs, may have requirements that are more stringent. In very specific circumstances, an appeal of the policy may be addressed to the head of the department in which the course was taken. If further action is warranted, the appeal may be addressed to the vice president of Academic Affairs.

Academic Dishonesty

Academic misconduct committed either directly or indirectly by an individual or group is subject to disciplinary action. Prohibited activities include but are not limited to the following practices:

- Cheating, including but not limited to unauthorized assistance from material, people, or devices when taking a test, quiz, or examination; writing papers or reports; solving problems; or completing academic assignments.
- Plagiarism, including but not limited to paraphrasing, summarizing, or directly quoting published or unpublished work of another person, including online or computerized services, without proper documentation of the original source.
- Purchasing or otherwise obtaining prewritten essays, research papers, or materials prepared by another person or agency that sells term papers or other academic materials to be presented as one’s own work.
- Taking an exam for another student.
- Providing others with information and/or answers regarding exams, quizzes, homework or other classroom assignments unless explicitly authorized by the instructor.
- Any of the above occurring within the Web or distance learning environment.

Please see the Pellissippi State Policies and Procedures Manual, Policy 04:02:00
Academic/Classroom Conduct and Disciplinary Sanctions for the complete policy.

Accommodations for Disabilities

Students that need accommodations because of a disability, have emergency medical information to share, or need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated should inform the instructor immediately, privately after class or in her or his office.
Students must present a current accommodation plan from a staff member in Disability Services (DS) in order to receive accommodations in this course. Disability Services may be contacted by sending email to disabilityservices@pstcc.edu, or by visiting Alexander 130. More information is available at PSCC Disability Services.
