I. Adjunct Faculty Job Description (Policy 06:01:02, Section I)

The primary responsibility of this position is to provide quality instruction for student learning and to maintain a positive learning environment in the classroom. The major emphasis will be placed on teaching and evaluating students in classrooms and laboratories. (Instructors should not have family members or significant others enrolled in their classes.)

A. Responsibilities: (Policy 06:01:02, Section I)

1. Planning and teaching classes as assigned and as outlined in the course descriptions and course syllabi
2. Supervising the study and learning activities of students assigned
3. Submitting requests through the dean, program coordinator, or lead instructor for equipment, supplies, textbooks, and other instructional aids
4. Evaluating the academic progress of students
5. Demonstrating knowledge of services, regulations, and procedures as defined in the Adjunct Faculty Guidelines & Information Handbook
6. Submitting course grades and performing other administrative duties as required
7. Scheduling one office hour per week for each two-credit hour course. For extenuating circumstances in which office hours cannot be scheduled, the adjunct faculty member must submit a written plan to the dean describing how students can access the instructor. Office hours are not paid during the summer session.

B. Selection (Policy 06:01:02, Section II)

All adjunct faculty in the academic teaching areas, including adjunct faculty teaching college-level credit courses for the Business and Community Services department, will have the same academic qualifications as full-time faculty. These qualifications do not apply to adjunct faculty teaching non-credit courses for Business and Community Services. The dean or program coordinator reviews the credentials and interviews all applicants.

- Adjunct faculty members are selected according to the following criteria:
  1. Academic degree; proficiency in the proposed course
  2. Professional references
  3. Previous experience in business, industry, or teaching
  4. Completed application and official transcripts
- After the initial semester, rehiring decisions will be based on these factors:
  1. Classroom observations by fulltime faculty
  2. Student perception of course instruction comments and numerical results
  3. Instructor attendance
  4. Maintenance of an appropriate learning environment
  5. Performance of administrative duties in a timely manner; and
  6. Needs of the college

All adjunct instructors will be employed subject to the laws of the State of Tennessee, the requirements and policies of the Tennessee Board of Regents, and the requirements and policies of Pellissippi State Community College.
• Adjunct faculty teaching assignments are dependent on sufficient enrollment in each course available to be taught and/or other administrative considerations. Should the class(es) not have a sufficient number of students enrolled, the contract automatically becomes void. Pellissippi State also reserves the right to transfer class(es) to a full-time faculty member. Adjunct faculty appointments include no assurance, obligation, or guarantee of subsequent employment.

• Adjunct appointments may be canceled without prior notice and are not effective until approved by all College officials. The maximum teaching load will be in accordance with TBR and federal guidelines.

• In the event an adjunct faculty member cannot meet a class at the scheduled time, he or she must immediately contact the dean, program coordinator, or lead instructor. If teaching at one of the site campuses, contact the main office to have notices posted on the classroom door. Any absenteeism will be reflected in the amount of pay.

C. Personnel Requirements (Policy 06:01:02, Section III)

All adjunct faculty members who teach credit courses are required to submit at the time of initial employment:

1. Pellissippi State Employment Application with attached resume (completed online)
2. Background Check submitted online. Each adjunct faculty member is responsible for entering information to complete a criminal background and reference check through Pellissippi State’s background screening vendor. Instructions for entering information for this background check will be emailed to the adjunct faculty member by the Human Resources Department.
3. Official college transcript(s) from all higher education institutions attended. Official college transcript(s) must be received within fifteen days of hire and sent directly to Human Resources from the accrediting institution(s).
4. Employee Information Form
5. Drug Free Campus/Workplace Form
6. W-4 Form
7. Direct Deposit Form
8. Social Security Card (must be inspected and copied for payroll purposes)
9. I-9 Employment Eligibility Verification Form with documentation (see Lists of Acceptable Documents attached to I-9 for acceptable documentation). Federal law requires completion upon hire. Pellissippi State will only hire individuals lawfully authorized to work in the United States. If documentation is not received within three business days of the employee’s first day of employment, employment must be terminated.

A break in service of three years or more will require submittal of new paperwork. Forms must be submitted to the Human Resources office.
D. Evaluation Process (Policy 06:01:02, Section IV)

Adjunct faculty are evaluated via the following steps:
1. An in-class observation conducted by a full-time faculty member in each of the first six semesters of employment and at least once per year thereafter.
2. Student perception of course instruction surveys conducted in all class sections taught.

E. Professional Development Program (Policy 06:01:02, Section V)

1. Purpose

The purpose of the program as outlined in policy is to provide professional development support to adjunct faculty. The program, which includes the development of a portfolio, is a requirement only for those adjunct faculty who teach credit courses and who wish to apply for a salary increase after six semesters of teaching at Pellissippi State Community College. Full-time faculty who have retired from Pellissippi State and who are teaching as adjunct faculty are not required to submit a portfolio but will receive the 15 % increase unless they are covered under the Post-Retirement Service program.

After six semesters of teaching – excluding summer – and based on a favorable recommendation by the academic department dean, the adjunct faculty member may apply to receive a 15 % increase effective in fall semester of the following academic year. (Refer to page 4, Section III-Adjunct Faculty Advancement, Application Process)

2. Program

The program will span six (6) semesters of teaching, excluding summer.

a. Classroom Visits. At least once during each semester taught, a full-time faculty member (lead instructor, dean, program coordinator, or other designated faculty member) will visit a class session of the adjunct faculty member. The class visit will be documented and discussed with the adjunct faculty member, and a copy of the observation form will be placed in the portfolio. Twice during this six-semester period, the adjunct faculty member will visit a full-time faculty member’s class and write a report of each visit. The report will be placed in the portfolio.

b. Student Perception of Course Instruction. Each term the adjunct faculty member teaches, student perceptions will be completed. The results will be reviewed by the dean, discussed with the adjunct faculty member, and placed in the portfolio. Student perceptions are required every semester for all adjunct faculty, including those not participating in the professional development program.

c. Professional Development. During the six-semester period, the adjunct faculty member will participate in a professional development program consisting of six sessions on appropriate teaching methods and instructional design. Reports on each session will be in the portfolio.

d. In-Service. For each of the semesters taught during the period, the adjunct faculty member should attend the in-service meeting held at the beginning of the semester.
e. Self-Evaluation. The portfolio will include a self-evaluation by the adjunct faculty member concerning such matters as professional development, objectives met, graduate courses taken, professional reading, and other information that demonstrates growth as a teacher. After teaching six semesters, the adjunct faculty member may submit the portfolio to a committee of department faculty members for review. Based on a favorable recommendation, the adjunct faculty member may receive a 15% increase in pay at the beginning of the following fall semester.

II. Compensation (Policy 06:01:02, TBR Guideline P-050)

The purpose of this guideline is to establish the procedure for setting part-time faculty compensation at institutions governed by the Tennessee Board of Regents.

A. Dual Service (Policy 06:12:04, See also http://www.pstcc.edu/finance/contracts.php)

This policy is applicable to agreements whereby an institution in the Tennessee Board of Regents System or any agency of state government desires to procure the services of an employee of another institution or state agency or to provide the services of one of its employees to other institutions or state agencies. See also Pellissippi State Policy No. 06:17:00 and TBR Policy No. 05:01:05:00, Outside Employment and Extra Compensation.

B. Faculty Absence

Adjunct faculty members are expected to meet all classes as scheduled. In the case of anticipated absences, instructors must make arrangements that are approved by their lead instructor, dean, or program coordinator. In the case of unanticipated absences, instructors must notify the lead instructor, dean, or program coordinator and contact the main office if teaching at one of the satellite campuses. Do not call Campus Police to report absences. Any absenteeism will be reflected in the amount of pay received.

III. Adjunct Faculty Advancement, Application Process

A. Adjunct Portfolios (Policy 06:01:02, Section V, Part B; Policy 06:02:04)

Adjuncts may choose to develop a portfolio and use it after six semesters of teaching at Pellissippi State to apply for an increase in pay rate. Additional, detailed information about development of the portfolio can be found on page three, section E, Professional Development Program.

The portfolio is to include:

1. Copies of six full-time faculty observations of the adjunct’s teaching sessions;
2. Documentation for two observations by adjunct faculty of full-time instructor teaching sessions;
3. Written reports for six professional-development sessions on teaching methods and instructional design;
4. Notes for six semesters of adjunct in-service meetings; and
The portfolio is an official document representing the adjunct faculty member as a professional educator. The content and organization of the document should reflect the personal and professional character of the applicant. The applicant should organize the portfolio with the following labeled categories:

2. Vita. Include specific dates of employment, courses taught each term, and professional activities.
3. Transcript. Attach a current transcript including all relevant graduate work.
4. Classroom Visits. Attach copies of all classroom evaluations by peers or deans.
5. Student Perceptions of Course-Instruction. Include reports from each semester.
6. Teacher Training. Include copies of reports from teacher training sessions.
7. In-Service Attendance. List dates of in-service meetings attended.
8. Self-Evaluation. (See #5 Self-Evaluation above.)

The professional development plan provides a means for deans to acknowledge quality performance and professional growth of adjunct faculty. Completion of this program includes no assurance, obligation, or guarantee of subsequent employment either on a part-time or full-time basis.

B. Mentoring and Evaluation Program for Adjunct Instructors (Policy 06:02:04)

Pellissippi State relies on professional, experienced, well-trained part-time instructors. Pellissippi State’s adjunct mentoring process ensures partnering with full-time faculty to promote collegiality, maintain lines of communication, and to develop consistent excellence in instruction.

C. Mentoring for New Adjunct Instructors

1. It is recommended that within the first month of each semester, all adjuncts in their first or second semesters at Pellissippi State be assigned a mentor who is a full-time faculty member and who, preferably, is teaching the same course as the adjunct. The full-time instructor will:
   • Make initial contact by phone or email immediately upon receiving the assignment, and provide the adjunct with complete contact information.
   • Orient the adjunct to course structure and current teaching techniques being used by colleagues.
   • Be available to discuss course progress and any concerns the adjunct may have.
   • At the request of the adjunct, visit the adjunct’s class before midterm and offer observations and suggestions. This informal observation will not result in a report to the dean or program coordinator.

2. After midterm, new adjuncts will be observed by the mentor or another full-time faculty member, according to the following process:
   • The full-time faculty member will contact the adjunct to arrange a time for an observation.
   • During or immediately following the class, the observer will complete a Pellissippi State Faculty Observation Form.

- Within one week after the class, the full-time faculty member will discuss his or her observations with the adjunct.
- After both parties have signed the observation form, the full-time faculty member will send it to the dean or program coordinator.

3. The dean or program coordinator will follow up with the adjunct as necessary and will keep the observation report on file for use as part of the continuing process of evaluation of adjuncts, including making hiring decisions for future semesters, and development of the adjunct’s portfolio (See portfolio description and goals in Adjunct Portfolios, section III. A. of this document)

D. Partnering for Returning Adjunct Instructors

It is recommended that adjuncts who have taught at Pellissippi State for more than two semesters, have an assigned, full-time faculty partner, who will contact the adjunct, and be available for consultation. Teaching observations will be conducted each semester until the adjunct has taught at Pellissippi for six semesters and has applied for an increase in pay with the submission of a professional development portfolio. After this point, the adjunct will be observed only in fall semesters. Adjuncts are encouraged to observe classes of full-time instructors as well, since two observation reports are required for the adjunct portfolio.

E. Student Perception of Course Instruction (Policy 06:02:04)

- Adjunct faculty members are evaluated by students each semester in all sections they teach. The dean may elect to reduce the number of required student perceptions for those adjunct faculty members whose performance is deemed satisfactory after two semesters of teaching within a discipline or a department.
- Student Perceptions of Course Instruction are conducted in accordance with specific instructions as directed by the vice president of Academic Affairs. Using this information, faculty can self-assess instructional practices, modify instruction or experiment with alternative approaches to instruction, and monitor changes in student perceptions of instructional effectiveness over time.

A. Creating a Safe Campus (http://www.pstcc.edu/safecampus/index.php)

Pellissippi State will fully comply with the applicable provisions of federal and state civil rights laws, including but not limited to, Executive Order 11246, as amended; the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended; the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended; the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Act of 1974, as amended; the Equal Pay Act of 1963, as amended; Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, as amended; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967; the Age Discrimination Act of 1975; the Pregnancy Discrimination Act; the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008; and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto. The College will promote equal opportunity for all persons without regard to race, color, religion, creed, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation/gender identity/expression, disability, age as applicable, status as a covered veteran, genetic information, and any other category protected by federal or state civil rights law.

The College affirms that it will not tolerate discrimination against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, creed, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation/gender identity/expression, disability, age as applicable, status as a covered veteran, or genetic information, nor will the College tolerate harassment on the basis of these protected categories or any other category protected by federal or state civil rights law. Similarly, the College will not subject any student to discrimination or harassment under any educational program and no student shall be discriminatorily excluded from participation nor denied the benefits of any educational program on the basis of race, color, religion, creed, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation/gender identity/expression, disability, age as applicable, status as a covered veteran, genetic information, or any other category protected by federal or state civil rights law.

B. Discrimination may occur by: (Policy 00:03:00, Policy 06:23:01)

1. Treating individuals less favorably because of their race, color, religion, creed, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation/gender identity/expression, disability, age as applicable, status as a covered veteran, genetic information, or any other category protected by federal or state civil rights law; or,
2. Having a policy or practice that has a disproportionately adverse impact on protected class members.

C. Harassment (Policy 00:03:00, Policy 06:23:01)

Harassment based on a protected class

- Harassment is conduct that is based on a person’s race, color, religion, creed, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation/gender identity/expression, disability, age, as applicable, status as a covered veteran, genetic information, or any other category protected by federal or state civil rights law, that
- Adversely affects a term or condition of an individual’s employment, education, participation in an institution’s activities or living environment;
- Has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s employment or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, offensive or abusive environment of the individual; or
- Is used as a basis for or a factor in decisions that tangibly affect that individual’s employment, education, participation in an institution’s activities or living environment.

Examples of such conduct include, but are not limited to, verbal or physical conduct relating to an employee’s national origin, race, surname, skin color or accent, offensive or derogatory jokes based on a protected category, racial or ethnic slurs, pressure for dates or sexual favors, unwelcome comments about a person’s religion or religious garments, offensive graffiti, cartoons or pictures, or offensive remarks about a person’s age.
Not every act that might be offensive to an individual or a group will be considered harassment. Whether the alleged conduct constitutes harassment depends upon the record as a whole and the totality of the circumstances, such as the nature of the conduct in the context within which the alleged incident occurs. Harassment does not include verbal expressions or written material that is relevant and appropriately related to course subject matter or curriculum.

D. Sexual Harassment (Policy 00:03:00)

Examples of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to, the following:
- Refusing to hire, promote, or grant or deny certain privileges because of acceptance or rejection of sexual advances
- Promising a work-related benefit or a grade in return for sexual favors
- Suggestive or inappropriate communications, email, notes, letters, or other written materials displaying objects or pictures which are sexual in nature that would create hostile or offensive work or living environments
- Sexual innuendoes, comments, and remarks about a person’s clothing, body or activities
- Suggestive or insulting sounds
- Whistling in a suggestive manner
- Humor and jokes about sex that denigrate men or women
- Sexual propositions, invitations, or pressure for sexual activity
- Use in the classroom of sexual jokes, stories, remarks or images in no way or only marginally relevant to the subject matter of the class
- Implied or overt sexual threats
- Suggestive or obscene gestures
- Patting, pinching, and other inappropriate touching
- Unnecessary touching or brushing against the body
- Attempted or actual kissing or fondling
- Suggestive or inappropriate acts, such as comments, innuendoes, or physical contact based on one’s actual or perceived sexual orientation and/or gender identity/expression

The examples listed above are not exclusive, but simply represent types of conduct that may constitute sexual harassment.

V. Faculty/Student Instructional Relationship (PSCC Policy 00:03:00, TBR Policy 06:03:00:00, TBR Guideline P-080)

Faculty are encouraged to personalize instruction and to know their students as individuals. Respect for and interest in students can be communicated in many ways. For example, attentive listening and eye contact signal to students that they have the instructor's attention. References to student discussions while lecturing or answering questions also demonstrate the instructor's interest in students. Instructors can personalize instruction when student backgrounds and expectations of the course are known. Instructors can help students organize their knowledge into presentations relevant to course objectives. The instructor can help students by recommending resources and encouraging the development of a more comprehensive knowledge base.

Personalized interaction with students should not obscure the instructor’s ability to objectively evaluate student performance. When a student submits work or tests, the instructor must offer a professional opinion on the demonstrated level of mastery. When emergencies occur, the instructor has the prerogative of adjusting deadlines.

Student Access

- Adjunct faculty and students must have access to one another. At the Hardin Valley Campus, adjunct faculty may reserve office space in room 209 in the Educational Resource Center (ERC).
- Adjuncts at Division Street, Blount County, Magnolia Avenue, and Strawberry Plains will also have an assigned office area.
- Adjunct faculty must post a schedule of class and office hours in their assigned area and inform students of office hours and location, office phone number, and location of mailbox at the first class meeting. Students may leave written messages in the faculty mailbox (check with site campuses concerning mailbox procedures). Adjuncts will forward a class schedule with office hours and location to the dean and departmental assistant.
- Adjuncts may communicate with students and staff via electronic mail. See policy 08:13:05 for appropriate use of the College’s computer system.

VI. Student Attendance Policy (Policy 03:11:01, Section X)

A. Students are expected to attend and participate in all scheduled class, laboratory, or clinical sessions. Absences result in missed learning opportunities, lower grades, and, in many cases, failure for the course. Prompt and regular attendance enhances the likelihood of student achievement while also instilling habits that will prepare graduates for success in the workplace.

B. With the approval of the vice president of Academic Affairs, individual faculty members, programs, disciplines, or departments may establish specific requirements for attendance in individual courses. If an attendance policy is requested, a consensus of at least 75% must be reached by all faculty, program coordinators, and deans associated with the course before the request is submitted to the vice president of Academic Affairs. Each course syllabus will specify attendance requirements and the specific academic consequences entailed by those requirements.

VII. Record Keeping

A. Accuracy of Class Lists

Faculty members should access their class lists through MyPellissippi frequently during the semester to check for proper registration of students attending each class. Particular attention should be given to the accuracy of class lists after the add period is over. Class lists should be carefully reviewed after the add deadline and corrections or discrepancies should be reported to the Records Office by the faculty member. Any student in the class at that time but not on the class list must be sent to the Records Office to clarify the discrepancy. Students must be fully registered before they are allowed to attend any class. It is the responsibility of the faculty member to see that the student clears any discrepancy in his/her registration status. The Records Office will notify the faculty member of the admission status of such a student.

Faculty will be notified by email each semester of the dates that Banner will be open for grading. During this period faculty can enter Banner and record grades for their assigned classes. No final grades may be reported for students whose names do not appear on the official roll. Faculty members must maintain accurate rolls at all times. If a student is on the roll, is not attending, and does not drop the class, she or he will remain on the roll and receive an "F" at the end of the semester. Instructors should keep accurate attendance records as well as an accurate recording of other performance measures, in case a student’s last date of attendance should ever be questioned by an auditor. These records should be maintained for a minimum of three years following the end of the academic year. Instructors report class attendance via the MyPellissippi website.

B. Attendance Policies for Title IV Financial Aid Recipients

As required by federal regulation, Pellissippi State monitors class attendance. The following attendance policies apply to Title IV financial aid recipients:

- Any student who never attends one or more classes will have aid reduced by 100% accordingly.
- Any student who drops hours between the first day of class and the last day to add a class will not receive aid for that class.
- Adjustments of financial aid for any student who officially withdraws will be based on the date the student notifies the school of their intention to withdraw.
- Adjustments of financial aid for any student who stops attending all classes, but does not officially withdraw, will be based on last date of attendance.

C. Class and Grade Rolls

Class rolls are available on the MyPellissippi website and should be printed to serve as the official record of enrolled students. Class rolls should be accessed often to monitor students who drop, add, or withdraw. D2L rosters cannot be used as official records of enrollment.

VIII. Faculty Professional Ethics  (Policy 06:01:04)

Pellissippi State Community College Faculty Senate affirms acceptance of the Professional Ethics Statement that was approved by Committee B of the American Association of University Professors in June 1987.

- Professors, guided by a deep conviction of the worth and dignity of the advancement of knowledge, recognize the special responsibilities placed upon them. Their primary responsibility to their subject is to seek and to state the truth as they see it. To this end professors devote their energies to developing and improving their scholarly competence. They accept the obligation to exercise critical self-discipline and judgment in using, extending, and transmitting knowledge. They practice intellectual honesty. Although professors may follow subsidiary interests, these interests must never seriously hamper or compromise their freedom of inquiry.
- As teachers, professors encourage the free pursuit of learning in their students. They hold before them the best scholarly and ethical standards of their discipline. Professors demonstrate respect for students as individuals and adhere to their proper roles as intellectual guides and counselors. Professors make every reasonable effort to foster honest academic conduct and to ensure that their evaluations of students reflect each student's true merit. They respect the confidential nature of the relationship between professor and student. They avoid any exploitation, harassment, or discriminatory treatment of students. They acknowledge significant academic or scholarly assistance from them. They protect their academic freedom.

- As colleagues, professors have obligations that derive from common membership in the community of scholars. Professors do not discriminate against or harass colleagues. They respect and defend the free inquiry of associates. In the exchange of criticism and ideas professors show due respect for the opinions of others. Professors acknowledge academic debt and strive to be objective in their professional judgment of colleagues. Professors accept their share of faculty responsibility for the governance of their institution.

- As members of an academic institution, professors seek above all to be effective teachers and scholars. Although professors observe the stated regulations of the institution, provided the regulations do not contravene academic freedom, they maintain their right to criticize and seek revision. Professors give due regard to their paramount responsibilities within their institution in determining the amount and character of work done outside it. When considering the interruption or termination of their service, professors recognize the effect of their decision upon the program of the institution and give due notice of their intentions.

- As members of their community, professors have the rights and obligations of other citizens. Professors measure the urgency of these obligations in the light of their responsibilities to their subject, to their students, to their profession, and to their institution. When they speak or act as private persons they avoid creating the impression of speaking or acting for their college or university. As citizens engaged in a profession that depends upon freedom for its health and integrity, professors have a particular obligation to promote conditions of free inquiry and to further public understanding of academic freedom.

IX. Classroom Behavior (Policy 04:02:00)

The instructor has the primary responsibility for control of classroom behavior and maintenance of academic integrity and should address classroom behavior issues with students as they occur.

Instructors can order the temporary removal or exclusion from the classroom of any student engaged in disruptive conduct or behavior in violation of the general rules and regulations of Pellissippi State. Extended or permanent exclusion from the classroom or further disciplinary action can be effected only through following appropriate procedures of Pellissippi State Community College.

Upon discovery of a student’s participation in academic misconduct, either directly or indirectly through participation or assistance, the student is immediately responsible to the instructor of the class. Consult Pellissippi State Policy 04:02:00, Part 3 Academic and Classroom Misconduct, for further information.

A. Behavioral Intervention Team (http://www.pstcc.edu/bit/index.php)

The Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT) assists in providing a safe academic environment for faculty, staff and students. In most cases, students respond best to direct intervention by the instructor, but if inappropriate behavior continues to be disruptive as described below, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Examples of when to call BIT for assistance:

- Threatening or intimidating behavior
- Bizarre behavior, such as acting “out of touch” with reality
• Angry, hostile or abusive behavior
• Behavior which is disruptive or worrisome
• Should a student’s behavior warrant removal from the class, instruct the student to leave. If the student does not follow your instructions, please do not hesitate to call Campus Police for assistance.

Examples of when to consult with a counselor:

Minor classroom disruptions such as disrespectful comments or inappropriate behavior, etc.
Personal life issues relating to domestic abuse, suicidal thoughts, homelessness, etc.
For more information and helpful resources, please review the following website: Behavioral Intervention Team http://www.pstcc.edu/bit/index.php

Academic and student support services are provided throughout the student’s educational career to encourage academic achievement and personal growth. The College is especially committed to providing new students with experiences that recognize their unique and diverse needs and maximize their opportunities to succeed. This commitment is articulated in Pellissippi State’s Statement of Philosophy for the First Year of College: http://www.pstcc.edu/academics/

The faculty and staff at Pellissippi State Community College believe that the first-year experience is critically important as it provides the foundation for college success and lifelong learning. To best serve the unique needs of first-year students, we commit to the following:

• Facilitating new student transition to the college campus
• Providing high-quality instruction during the first year
• Establishing positive mentoring and advising relationships with beginning students
• Supporting a vibrant college culture where students experience and express diverse world-views

• Evaluating the results of our efforts addressing first-year student needs.

In providing first-year students exceptional opportunities for growth and involvement, we believe they will connect more deeply with the college community, achieve their academic goals, and gain a clearer, fuller vision of their lifetime direction.

Each of the College’s programs is built on a set of educational goals. In addition to program-specific goals, the College expects that all students will be provided a strong general education. College curricula and supporting activities are designed to enhance personal and professional success by developing knowledge and skills in the areas of communication, humanities/fine arts, history, social/behavioral sciences, natural sciences, mathematics and technological literacy. Goals for student learning in each of these areas have been developed in conjunction with other Tennessee Board of Regents (TBR) institutions and the TBR system.
These include:

- Communication: Enhance the effective use of the English language essential to success in school and in the world by way of learning to read and listen critically and to write and speak thoughtfully, clearly, coherently, and persuasively.
- Humanities/Fine Arts: Enhance the understanding of students who, as citizens and educated members of their communities, need to know and appreciate their own human cultural heritage and its development in a historical and global context.
- Social/Behavioral Sciences: Develop an understanding of self and the world by examining the content and processes used by social and behavioral sciences to discover, describe, explain, and predict human behavior and social systems; enhance knowledge of social and cultural institutions and the values of this society and other societies and cultures in the world; and understand the interdependent nature of the individual, family and society in shaping human behavior and determining quality of life.
- History: Develop an understanding of the present that is informed by an awareness of past heritages, including the complex and interdependent relationships between cultures and societies.
- Natural Sciences: Enhances abilities to define and solve problems, reason with an open mind, think critically and creatively, suspend judgment and make decisions that may have local or global significance.
- Mathematics: Expand understanding of mathematics beyond the entry-level requirements for college and extend knowledge through relevant mathematical modeling with applications, problem solving, critical thinking skills, and use of appropriate technologies.
- Technological Literacy: Understand the role of technology in society and possess the skills necessary to adapt to changing computer and information technologies.

C. Program Coordinator/Lead Instructor

Program Coordinators and lead instructors are full-time faculty members who have the responsibility for the design and development of specific courses. Operational responsibilities for program coordinators and lead instructors include providing reference information and instructional aids and reviewing instructional plans and outcomes with other instructors of their assigned courses. In addition, program coordinators or lead instructors can provide guidance for working with students who have special interests or problems.
