To fulfill its mission, Pellissippi State provides students and other citizens of its community specific offerings in the following areas:

- associate's degree and certificate programs that lead to employment in engineering technologies and business;
- associate's degree programs and courses that prepare students for transfer to baccalaureate-level colleges and universities;
- learning support and other educational support programs and services;
- General Educational Development (GED) preparation;
- training to meet specific needs of businesses, industries, and individuals;
- continuing education programs, seminars, and workshops;
- resources for special grade K-12 programs and events;
- support for, involvement in, and promotion of civic and cultural projects and events.

To sustain and enhance these offerings, Pellissippi State maintains and continually develops comprehensive fiscal and other administrative services and a physical environment conducive to learning. Located in Tennessee's third-largest metropolitan area, Pellissippi State comprehensively serves the greater Knox and Blount County area and extends its engineering technology offerings to Anderson, Loudon, Roane, Cumberland, Campbell, Fentress, Scott, and Morgan Counties. A member of the Tennessee Board of Regents (TBR) System, the College seeks to develop and maintain effective student transfer agreements with TBR universities, the University of Tennessee, and private colleges and universities of the region. In all programs and services, Pellissippi State continually emphasizes the value of diversity among students, personnel, and other constituencies. Services are provided without regard to age, gender, veteran status, religion, race, national origin, or disability unrelated to program performance.

Similarly, the College will not subject any student to discrimination or harassment under any educational program and no student shall be discriminatorily excluded from participation nor denied the benefits of any educational program on the basis of race, color, religion, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation or gender identity, disability, age or status as a covered veteran.

I. PERSONNEL INFORMATION

A. Adjunct Faculty Job Description

Narrative Description:
The primary responsibility of this position is to provide quality instruction for student learning and to maintain a positive learning environment in the classroom. The major emphasis will be placed on teaching and evaluating students in classrooms and laboratories. (Instructors should not have family members or significant others enrolled in their classes.) Functional responsibilities include:
1. Planning and teaching classes as assigned and as outlined in the course descriptions and course syllabi
2. Supervising the study and learning activities of students assigned
3. Submitting requests through the dean, program coordinator, or lead instructor for equipment, supplies, textbooks, and other instructional aids
4. Evaluating the academic progress of students
5. Demonstrating knowledge of services, regulations, and procedures as defined in the Adjunct Faculty Guidelines & Information Book
6. Submitting course grades and performing other administrative duties as required
7. Scheduling one office hour per week for each two credit hour course. For extenuating circumstances in which office hours cannot be scheduled, the adjunct faculty member must submit a written plan to the dean describing how students can access the instructor. Office hours are not paid during the summer session.

B. Selection, In-service, and Compensation

All adjunct faculty in the academic teaching areas, including adjunct faculty teaching college-level credit courses for the Business and Community Services department, will have the same academic qualifications as full-time faculty. These qualifications do not apply to adjunct faculty teaching non-credit courses for Business and Community Services. The dean or program coordinator reviews the credentials and interviews all applicants. Adjunct faculty members are selected according to these five criteria:
1. Academic degree; proficiency in the proposed course
2. Professional references
3. Previous experience in business, industry, or teaching
4. Completed application and official transcripts
5. Background checks

After the initial semester, rehiring depends on these factors:
1. Student evaluation comments and numerical results
2. Instructor attendance
3. Maintenance of an appropriate learning environment
4. Performance of administrative duties
5. Classroom observations by full-time faculty
6. Needs of the College

All adjunct instructors will be employed subject to the laws of the State of Tennessee, the requirements and policies of the Tennessee Board of Regents, and the requirements and policies of Pellissippi State Community College.

Adjunct faculty teaching assignments are dependent on sufficient enrollment in each course to be taught and/or other administrative considerations. Should the class(es) not have a sufficient number of students enrolled, the contract automatically becomes void. Pellissippi State also reserves the right to transfer the class(es) to a full-time faculty member. Adjunct faculty appointments do not include any assurance, obligation, or guarantee of subsequent employment. Adjunct appointments may be canceled without prior notice and are not effective until approved by all College officials. The maximum teaching load combined for fall and spring semesters is 24 equated load hours, with a maximum of 14 hours in a semester; the summer maximum is 7 equated load hours. Maximum teaching loads may be exceeded in exceptional cases approved by the vice president of Academic Affairs and president prior to the first day of the employment period.

In the event that an adjunct faculty member cannot meet a class at the scheduled time, he or she must immediately contact the dean, program coordinator, or lead instructor. If teaching at one of the site campuses, contact the main office to have notices posted on the classroom door. Any absenteeism will be reflected in the amount of pay.
In-service

Adjunct faculty will participate in an in-service session to be scheduled fall and spring semesters. This meeting will include administrative details necessary for working at Pellissippi State. Training sessions for new adjunct faculty members will be conducted as part of departmental orientation meetings.

Deans, program coordinators, or lead instructors will inform adjunct faculty of the following instructional details: textbook, roll book, course outline, syllabus, sample tests, official rolls, and mailboxes. Online copies of the Adjunct Faculty Guidelines & Information Book can be found at www.pstcc.edu/instruction/_files/pdf/handbook.pdf. The adjunct faculty should be thoroughly briefed to ensure continuity of instruction, especially between day and evening classes. Each adjunct faculty member must work carefully with the lead instructor for the course being taught.

Compensation

The adjunct faculty salary is contingent upon successful completion of service for the full term of the agreement. In the event of failure to complete the specific terms of the appointment, salary will be prorated in accordance with the policies of Pellissippi State. The salary will accrue and be payable as follows:

- Fall -- Last working day of September, October, November, December
- Spring -- Last working day of February, March, April, May
- Summer -- Last working day of June, July, August

An adjunct faculty member is not eligible for employment benefits (retirement credit, educational assistance, state insurance plan, sick leave, or holiday pay).

C. Personnel Requirements

All adjunct faculty members are required to submit at the time of initial employment:

1. Completed Pellissippi State Employment Application and Faculty Application Insert
2. Social Security card
3. Current resume
4. Official college transcript(s) for all degrees earned
5. W-4 form
6. Employment Eligibility Verification form, I-9, plus documentation (as indicated on the back of the form). All new employees will be required to complete an I-9 form immediately upon hire. Pellissippi State will only hire individuals lawfully authorized to work in the U.S.
7. An Employee Information Form
8. Each adjunct faculty member is responsible for entering information to complete a criminal background and reference check through Pellissippi State’s background screening vendor. Instructions for entering information for this background check will be emailed to the adjunct faculty member by the HR Department.

A break in service of three years or more will require submittal of new paperwork. Forms must be submitted to the Human Resources office.

Contracts must be signed and returned immediately to the department's office when the adjunct faculty member receives the contract. Contracts cannot be processed until all requirements are submitted to the Human Resources office. Contracts will contain the legal name of the instructor as it appears on the Social Security card.

Adjunct faculty are expected to be aware of dates within the academic term which are pertinent to them and their students. These dates are listed in the academic calendar of events in the College catalog.

Dual Service Agreements

State law prohibits any regular employee from receiving paychecks from two state agencies. Thus, persons employed by another state agency, on either a full-time basis or a regular part-time basis, and employed by Pellissippi State receive payment for services through a dual service agreement. (Individuals employed by other state agencies, including UTK, on a temporary part-time hourly basis and who are also employed on a temporary part-time basis at Pellissippi State will not require dual service agreements.) The dean should contact the Human Resources office as soon as possible regarding a dual service employee so a dual service agreement can be initiated. Prospective adjunct employees should be informed that delays in payment can result from this contractual process. Checks are issued by the employer of record. See Pellissippi State Policy and Procedures 06:12:04 for further clarification.
D. On the Job Injuries
   In the event that you are injured on the job, notify the dean/coordinator/lead instructor, Safety & Security, and Human Resources as soon as possible. If medical assistance is needed, you must choose a provider from our network. The list of providers is available at www.treasury.state.tn.us/wc/.
   In the event of an emergency, go to the closest emergency room. In the event of an evening injury which requires immediate medical attention, notify Safety & Security, and proceed to the nearest network hospital, if available, or to the closest emergency room.
   REMINDER: You must choose a provider from our list of providers for payment of medical bills. If you use a provider that is not in the network, you will be responsible for full payment.

E. Student Injuries and/or Emergencies
   If a student is injured or has a medical emergency, contact Safety & Security.

F. Parking
   A brochure on parking regulations and procedures is provided by the Human Resources or Safety & Security office. Adjunct faculty must get an appropriate parking tag from the Safety & Security office at the Hardin Valley Campus.

G. Adjunct Mentoring and Evaluation Program for Adjunct Instructors
   Pellissippi State relies heavily on a professional, experienced, well-trained body of part-time instructors. In order to ensure collegiality between part- and full-time instructors, to maintain communication between part-time instructors and their departments, and to maintain consistent excellent instruction for the mutual benefit of Pellissippi State students, faculty, and administration, the academic departments have developed this process for partnering adjuncts with full-time faculty. The actual details of implementation may vary somewhat from department to department depending on the curriculum and the needs of specific departments and instructors.

   Mentoring for New Adjuncts
   1. Within the first month of each semester, all adjuncts in their first or second semesters at Pellissippi State will be assigned a mentor who is a full-time faculty member and who, preferably, is teaching the same course as the adjunct.
   2. The full-time instructor will:
      - Make initial contact by phone or email immediately upon receiving the assignment. Provide the adjunct with phone numbers, office number, and e-mail address.
      - Make himself or herself available to answer questions about courses, the department, or the College; to offer advice about teaching techniques or students; or just to provide a sounding board.
      - At the request of the adjunct, visit the adjunct’s class before midterm and offer observations and suggestions. This informal observation will not result in a report to the dean or program coordinator.
   3. After midterm new adjuncts will be observed by the mentor or another full-time faculty member, according to the following process:
      - The full-time faculty member will contact the adjunct to arrange a time for observation.
      - Before observation, the adjunct will provide the observer with a copy of his or her syllabus (or course schedule) and with copies of any handouts or assignments relevant to the class period.
      - During or immediately following the class, the observer will complete a Pellissippi State Faculty Observation Form.
      - Within one week after the class, the full-time faculty member will discuss his or her observations with the adjunct.
      - After both parties have signed the observation form, the full-time faculty member will send it to the dean or program coordinator.
      - The dean or program coordinator will follow up with the adjunct as necessary and will keep the observation report on file for use as part of the continuing process of evaluation of adjuncts, including making hiring decisions for future semesters.
Partnering for Returning Adjuncts

Adjuncts who have taught at Pellissippi State for more than two semesters will be assigned a full-time partner, who will contact the adjunct, will be available for consultation if necessary, and will observe the adjunct’s class after midterm. The partner will follow the same process for observation described in steps 3 and 4 above. After six semesters, when the adjunct is eligible to apply for an increase in pay with the submission of a professional development portfolio, the adjunct will be observed only in fall semesters. Adjuncts are encouraged to observe classes of full-time instructors as well, since two observation reports are required for the adjunct portfolio.

H. Student Perception of Faculty

Adjunct faculty members are evaluated by students each semester in all sections they teach. The dean may elect to reduce the number of required student perceptions for those adjunct faculty members whose performance is deemed satisfactory after two semesters of teaching within a discipline or a department.

Student perceptions of faculty are conducted in accordance with specific instructions as directed by the vice president of Academic Affairs. Using this information, faculty can self-assess instructional practices, modify instruction or experiment with alternative approaches to instruction, and monitor changes in student perceptions of instructional effectiveness over time. See the appendix for a sample of the student perception of faculty form.

I. Faculty Absence

Adjunct faculty members are expected to meet all classes promptly as scheduled. In the case of anticipated absences, instructors must propose plans which are approved by their lead instructor/dean/program coordinator. In the case of unanticipated absences, instructors must notify the lead instructor/dean/program coordinator and contact the main office if teaching at one of the site campuses. Do not call Safety & Security to report absences. Any absenteeism will be reflected in the amount of pay.

J. Drug-free Campus/Workplace

By signing the adjunct contract, adjunct faculty agree to abide by the terms of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 and the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989. [See Policy and Procedures 08:07:00 at www.pstcc.edu] They must also notify the Human Resources office of any criminal drug conviction for a violation occurring in the workplace no later than five days after such conviction.

K. Discrimination and Harassment – Policy 06:23:01

Pellissippi State will fully comply with the applicable provisions of federal and state civil rights laws, including but not limited to, Executive Order 11246, as amended; the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended; the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended; the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Act of 1974, as amended; the Equal Pay Act of 1963, as amended; Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, as amended; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967; the Age Discrimination Act of 1975; the Pregnancy Discrimination Act; the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008; and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto. The College will promote equal opportunity for all persons without regard to race, color, religion, creed, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation/gender identity/expression, disability, age as applicable, status as a covered veteran, genetic information, and any other category protected by federal or state civil rights law.

The College affirms that it will not tolerate discrimination against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, creed, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation/gender identity/expression, disability, age as applicable, status as a covered veteran, or genetic information, nor will the College tolerate harassment on the basis of these protected categories or any other category protected by federal or state civil rights law. Similarly, the College will not subject any student to discrimination or harassment under any educational program and no student shall be discriminatorily excluded from participation nor denied the benefits of any educational program on the basis of race, color, religion, creed, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation/gender identity/expression, disability, age as applicable, status as a covered veteran, genetic information, or any other category protected by federal or state civil rights law.
A. Discrimination may occur by:
1. Treating individuals less favorably because of their race, color, religion, creed, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation/gender identity/expression, disability, age as applicable, status as a covered veteran, genetic information, or any other category protected by federal or state civil rights law; or,
2. Having a policy or practice that has a disproportionately adverse impact on protected class members.

B. Harassment
1. Harassment based on a protected class
   Harassment is conduct that is based on a person’s race, color, religion, creed, ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation/gender identity/expression, disability, age, as applicable, status as a covered veteran, genetic information, or any other category protected by federal or state civil rights law, that
   • Adversely affects a term or condition of an individual’s employment, education, participation in an institution’s activities or living environment;
   • Has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s employment or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, offensive or abusive environment of the individual; or
   • Is used as a basis for or a factor in decisions that tangibly affect that individual’s employment, education, participation in an institution’s activities or living environment.

   Examples of such conduct include, but are not limited to, verbal or physical conduct relating to an employee’s national origin, race, surname, skin color or accent, offensive or derogatory jokes based on a protected category, racial or ethnic slurs, pressure for dates or sexual favors, unwelcome comments about a person’s religion or religious garments, offensive graffiti, cartoons or pictures, or offensive remarks about a person’s age.

   Not every act that might be offensive to an individual or a group will be considered harassment. Whether the alleged conduct constitutes harassment depends upon the record as a whole and the totality of the circumstances, such as the nature of the conduct in the context within which the alleged incident occurs. Harassment does not include verbal expressions or written material that is relevant and appropriately related to course subject matter or curriculum.

2. Sexual Harassment
   Examples of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to, the following:
   • Refusing to hire, promote, or grant or deny certain privileges because of acceptance or rejection of sexual advances;
   • Promising a work-related benefit or a grade in return for sexual favors;
   • Suggestive or inappropriate communications, email, notes, letters, or other written materials displaying objects or pictures which are sexual in nature that would create hostile or offensive work or living environments;
   • Sexual innuendoes, comments, and remarks about a person’s clothing, body or activities;
   • Suggestive or insulting sounds;
   • Whistling in a suggestive manner;
   • Humor and jokes about sex that denigrate men or women;
   • Sexual propositions, invitations, or pressure for sexual activity;
   • Use in the classroom of sexual jokes, stories, remarks or images in no way or only marginally relevant to the subject matter of the class;
   • Implied or overt sexual threats;
   • Suggestive or obscene gestures;
   • Patting, pinching, and other inappropriate touching;
   • Unnecessary touching or brushing against the body;
   • Attempted or actual kissing or fondling;
   • Suggestive or inappropriate acts, such as comments, innuendoes, or physical contact based on one’s actual or perceived sexual orientation and/or gender identity/expression.

   The examples listed above are not exclusive, but simply represent types of conduct that may constitute sexual harassment.
Please note that incidents of sexual violence may constitute criminal acts and as such, investigation and processing by the criminal justice system, local police, campus security and crisis intervention centers may occur as well. Complainant must be notified of his/her right to file a criminal complaint.

C. Consensual Relationships

Intimate relationships between faculty members and students are strongly discouraged due to the inherent inequality of power in such situations. These relationships could lead to undue favoritism or the perception of undue favoritism, abuse of power, compromised judgment or impaired objectivity.

Engaging in a consensual relationship with a student over whom the faculty member has either grading, supervisory, or other evaluative authority constitutes a conflict of interest. The faculty member must take steps to remove the conflict by asking for a different faculty member for the student; resigning from any student’s academic committee; or by terminating the relationship at least while the student is in his/her class.

L. Faculty/Student Instructional Relationships

Faculty are encouraged to personalize instruction and to know their students as individuals. Respect for and interest in students can be communicated in many ways. For example, attentive listening and eye contact signal students that they have the instructor’s attention. References to student discussions while lecturing or answering questions also demonstrate the instructor’s interest in students. Instructors can personalize instruction when student backgrounds and expectations of the course are known. Instructors can help more experienced students organize their knowledge into presentations relevant to course objectives. The instructor can influence less experienced students by recommending resources and encouraging the development of a more comprehensive knowledge base.

Student responsibility in a flexible instructional format is best communicated in terms of course objectives, clearly defined criteria for evaluation, and deadlines. This information provides a basis for planning. Evaluation criteria can be explained in relation to objectives. Deadlines can be explained as they relate to the instructional schedule and to how that schedule affects students’ overall learning. The student must then demonstrate a degree of mastery in course content as presented in the syllabus and by the instructor.

Consideration for the rights of others should prevent a student from dominating class discussion or the instructor’s time. Students should prepare for the class by completing assignments and identifying questions. Student questions may be answered during the lecture, or the instructor may choose to begin each class with a question/answer period. Students learn best when actively involved in the development of ideas, and they may not value prolonged discussions between the instructor and one or a few students. However, this concern should not prevent the instructor from occasionally permitting a spirited exchange of ideas.

Personalized interaction with students should not obscure the instructor’s ability to objectively evaluate student performance. When a student submits work or tests, the instructor must offer a professional opinion on the demonstrated level of mastery. Of course, when emergencies occur, the instructor has the prerogative of adjusting deadlines.

M. Student Access

Adjunct faculty and students must have access to one another. At the Hardin Valley Campus, adjunct faculty may reserve office space in room 209 in the Educational Resource Center (ERC). Adjuncts at Division Street, Blount County, Magnolia Avenue, and Strawberry Plains will also have an assigned office area.

Adjunct faculty must post a schedule of class and office hours in their assigned area and inform students of office hours and location, office phone number, and location of mailbox at the first class meeting. Students may leave written messages in the faculty mailbox (check with site campuses concerning mailbox procedures). Adjuncts will forward a class schedule with office hours and location to the dean and department secretary. Adjuncts may communicate with students and staff via electronic mail; see policy 08:13:05 for appropriate use of the College’s computer system.

N. Attendance Policy -- Record Keeping

Pellissippi State expects students to attend all scheduled instructional activities. As a minimum, students in all courses must be present for at least 75 percent of their scheduled class and laboratory meetings in order to receive credit for the course. Individual departments/programs/disciplines, with the approval of the vice president of Academic Affairs may have requirements that are more stringent.
Accurate and consistent recording of grades and other performance measures simplifies the development of the final grade, provides a quick reference for advisement, and profiles class performance on assignments and tests. Overall, the maintenance of accurate student records contributes to an organized approach to course management.

Attendance Policies for Title IV Financial Aid Recipients

As required by federal regulation, Pellissippi State monitors class attendance. The following attendance policies apply to Title IV financial aid recipients:

- Any student who never attends one or more classes will have aid reduced by 100% accordingly.
- Any student who drops hours between the first day of class and the last day to add a class will not receive aid for that class.
- Adjustments of financial aid for any student who officially withdraws will be based on the date the student notifies the school of their intention to withdraw.
- Adjustments of financial aid for any student who stops attending all classes, but does not officially withdraw, will be based on last date of attendance.

Class Rolls and Grade Rolls

Class rolls are available on the My Pellissippi website and should be printed to serve as the official record of enrolled students. Class rolls should be accessed often to monitor students who drop/add/withdraw. D2L rosters cannot be used as official records of enrollment. A student attending class who is not listed on the official roll must go to the Records office to check proper registration and fee payment. If a student is on the roll, is not attending, and does not drop the class, she or he will remain on the roll and receive an "F" at the end of the semester. Students may attend class only if officially enrolled.

In order for Pellissippi State to comply with Title IV regulations, instructors must report class attendance according to instructions that will be provided at the beginning of each semester. Instructors should keep accurate attendance records as well as an accurate recording of other performance measures, in case a student's last date of attendance should ever be questioned by an auditor. These records should be maintained for a minimum of three years following the end of the academic year.

Instructors report class attendance via the My Pellissippi website. The vice president of Academic Affairs and the academic deans will inform faculty of the attendance reporting dates each semester. Grade rolls list all officially enrolled students who are auditing or receiving grades for the course and are available online. A grade must be assigned to each student listed. Timely submission of grades is a contractual obligation for all faculty. The College catalog contains an explanation of the grading system and semester calendars listing dates when grades are due. Also see the catalog for grade information such as the “I” grade and the process to change grades.

Posting of grades by actual name or social security number is not permitted; use pseudonyms or assigned numbers instead. Each Pellissippi State employee must protect the confidentiality of personally identifiable educational records of students and former students. Read the FERPA information in the Student Records section of the current catalog.

O. Professional Development

Purpose

The nature of the community college requires that extensive use be made of adjunct faculty because they enable the College to be flexible in those times when enrollment is uncertain and often bring to the classroom expertise from the world of work that greatly enhances the educational experiences of students. It is the purpose of the program outlined below to provide professional development support to adjunct faculty. The program, which includes the development of a portfolio, is a requirement only for those adjunct faculty who teach credit courses and who wish to apply for a salary increment after six semesters of teaching at Pellissippi State Community College.

Program

The program will span six (6) semesters of teaching, including summer.

1. Classroom Visits. At least once during each semester taught, a full-time faculty member (lead instructor, dean, program coordinator, or other designated faculty member) will visit a class session of the adjunct faculty member.

The class visit will be documented and discussed with the adjunct faculty member, and a copy of the observation form will be placed in the portfolio. Twice during this six-semester period, the adjunct faculty member will visit a full-time faculty member's class and will write a report of each visit. This report will also be placed in the portfolio.

2. Student Perception of Faculty. Each term the adjunct faculty member teaches, student perceptions will be completed. The results will be reviewed by the dean, discussed with the adjunct faculty member, and placed in the portfolio. Student perceptions are required every semester for all adjunct faculty, including those not participating in the professional development program.

3. Teacher Training. During the six-semesters period, the adjunct faculty member must participate in an instructional development program consisting of six sessions on appropriate teaching methods and instructional design. Reports on each session will be in the portfolio.

4. In-Service. For each of the semesters taught during the period, the adjunct faculty member will attend the in-service meeting held at the beginning of the semester.

5. Self-Evaluation. The portfolio will include a self-evaluation by the adjunct faculty member concerning such matters as professional development, objectives met, graduate courses taken, professional reading, and other information that demonstrates growth as a teacher. After teaching six semesters, the adjunct faculty member may submit the portfolio to a committee of department faculty members for review. Based on a favorable recommendation, the adjunct faculty member may receive a 15% increase in pay at the beginning of the following fall semester.

Application Process

The Adjunct Faculty Professional Development Plan is a voluntary activity. All adjunct faculty who complete the process described above are eligible for the plan. Applications for the Professional Development Plan will be reviewed only in the spring. The portfolio must be submitted to the department dean by January 31 to permit the simultaneous review of adjunct and full-time faculty evaluations. (Faculty concluding their sixth semester of service in the spring have until May 1 to submit the portfolio.) After a review by a committee of department members, the dean, and/or the program coordinator, the portfolio and a recommendation will be forwarded to the vice president of Academic Affairs. Prior to the end of spring semester, the vice president will provide the applicant with written notification of the outcome.

The portfolio is an official document that represents an adjunct faculty member as a professional educator. The content and organization of the document should reflect the personal and professional character of the applicant. The applicant should organize the portfolio with the following labeled categories:

2. Vita. Include specific dates of employment, courses taught each term, and professional activities.
3. Transcript. Attach a current transcript including all relevant graduate work.
4. Classroom Visits. Attach copies of all classroom evaluations by peers or deans.
5. Student Perceptions of Faculty Instruction. Include reports from each semester.
6. Teacher Training. Include copies of reports from teacher training sessions.
7. In-Service Attendance. List dates of in-service meetings attended.
8. Self-Evaluation. (See #5 Self-Evaluation above.)

The professional development plan provides a means for deans to acknowledge quality performance and professional growth of adjunct faculty. Completion of this program does not include any assurance, obligation, or guarantee of subsequent employment either on a part-time or full-time basis.

P. Faculty Professional Ethics

Pellissippi State Community College Faculty Senate affirms acceptance of the Professional Ethics Statement that was approved by Committee B of the American Association of University Professors in June 1987.

"Professors, guided by a deep conviction of the worth and dignity of the advancement of knowledge, recognize the special responsibilities placed upon them. Their primary responsibility to their subject is to seek and to state the truth as they see it. To this end professors devote their energies to developing and improving their scholarly competence. They accept the obligation to exercise critical self-discipline and judgment in using, extending, and transmitting knowledge. They practice intellectual honesty. Although professors may follow subsidiary interests, these interests must never seriously hamper or compromise their freedom of inquiry.

As teachers, professors encourage the free pursuit of learning in their students. They hold before them the best scholarly and ethical standards of their discipline. Professors demonstrate respect for students as individuals and adhere to their proper roles as intellectual guides and counselors. Professors make every reasonable effort to foster honest academic conduct and to ensure that their evaluations of students reflect each student's true merit. They respect the confidential nature of the relationship between professor and student. They avoid any exploitation, harassment, or discriminatory treatment of students. They acknowledge significant academic or scholarly assistance from them. They protect their academic freedom.

As colleagues, professors have obligations that derive from common membership in the community of scholars. Professors do not discriminate against or harass colleagues. They respect and defend the free inquiry of associates. In the exchange of criticism and ideas professors show due respect for the opinions of others. Professors acknowledge academic debt and strive to be objective in their professional judgment of colleagues. Professors accept their share of faculty responsibility for the governance of their institution.

As members of an academic institution, professors seek above all to be effective teachers and scholars. Although professors observe the stated regulations of the institution, provided the regulations do not contravene academic freedom, they maintain their right to criticize and seek revision. Professors give due regard to their paramount responsibilities within their institution in determining the amount and character of work done outside it. When considering the interruption or termination of their service, professors recognize the effect of their decision upon the program of the institution and give due notice of their intentions.

As members of their community, professors have the rights and obligations of other citizens. Professors measure the urgency of these obligations in the light of their responsibilities to their subject, to their students, to their profession, and to their institution. When they speak or act as private persons they avoid creating the impression of speaking or acting for their college or university. As citizens engaged in a profession that depends upon freedom for its health and integrity, professors have a particular obligation to promote conditions of free inquiry and to further public understanding of academic freedom.”

Q. Classroom Behavior

The instructor has the primary responsibility for control of classroom behavior and maintenance of academic integrity and should address classroom behavior issues with students as they occur. Instructors can order the temporary removal or exclusion from the classroom of any student engaged in disruptive conduct or behavior violative of the general rules and regulations of Pellissippi State. Extended or permanent exclusion from the classroom or further disciplinary action can be effected only through appropriate procedures of Pellissippi State. Students guilty of academic misconduct, either directly or indirectly through participation or assistance, are immediately responsible to the instructor of the class. Consult Pellissippi State Policy 04:02:00, Academic Classroom Conduct and Disciplinary Sections, for further information.

The Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT) assists in providing a safe academic environment for faculty, staff and students. In most cases, students respond best to direct intervention by the instructor, but if inappropriate behavior continues to be disruptive as described below, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Examples of when to call BIT for assistance:
• Threatening or intimidating behavior
• Bizarre behavior, such as acting “out of touch” with reality
• Angry, hostile or abusive behavior
• Behavior which is disruptive or worrisome

Should a student’s behavior warrant removal from the class, instruct the student to leave. If the student does not follow your instructions, please do not hesitate to call Safety & Security for assistance.

Examples of when to consult with a counselor:
• Minor classroom disruptions such as disrespectful comments or inappropriate behavior, etc.
• Personal life issues relating to domestic abuse, suicidal thoughts, homelessness, etc.

II. INSTRUCTIONAL INFORMATION

A. Philosophy and Goals

Pellissippi State offers a variety of educational opportunities to meet the needs of students with diverse backgrounds and interests. Academic and student support services are provided throughout the student’s educational career to encourage academic achievement and personal growth. The College is especially committed to providing new students with experiences that recognize their unique and diverse needs and maximize their opportunities to succeed. This commitment is articulated in Pellissippi State’s Statement of Philosophy for the First Year of College:

The faculty and staff at Pellissippi State Community College believe that the first-year experience is critically important as it provides the foundation for college success and lifelong learning. To best serve the unique needs of first-year students, we commit to the following:

- Facilitating new student transition to the college campus
- Providing high-quality instruction during the first year
- Establishing positive mentoring and advising relationships with beginning students
- Supporting a vibrant college culture where students experience and express diverse world-views
- Offering a comprehensive range of activities and opportunities to enhance learning and personal growth
- Evaluating the results of our efforts addressing first-year student needs.

In providing first-year students exceptional opportunities for growth and involvement, we believe they will connect more deeply with the college community, achieve their academic goals, and gain a clearer, fuller vision of their lifetime direction.

Each of the College’s programs is built on a set of educational goals. In addition to program-specific goals, the College expects that all students will be provided a strong general education. College curricula and supporting activities are designed to enhance personal and professional success by developing knowledge and skills in the areas of communication, humanities/fine arts, social/behavioral sciences, history, natural sciences, mathematics and technological literacy. Goals for student learning in each of these areas have been developed in conjunction with other Tennessee Board of Regents (TBR) institutions and the TBR system. These include:

1. Communication Enhance the effective use of the English language essential to success in school and in the world by way of learning to read and listen critically and to write and speak thoughtfully, clearly, coherently, and persuasively.
2. Humanities/Fine Arts Enhance the understanding of students who, as citizens and educated members of their communities, need to know and appreciate their own human cultural heritage and its development in a historical and global context.
3. Social/Behavioral Sciences Develop an understanding of self and the world by examining the content and processes used by social and behavioral sciences to discover, describe, explain, and predict human behavior and social systems; enhance knowledge of social and cultural institutions and the values of this society and other societies and cultures in the world; and understand the interdependent nature of the individual, family and society in shaping human behavior and determining quality of life.
4. History Develop an understanding of the present that is informed by an awareness of past heritages, including the complex and interdependent relationships between cultures and societies.
5. Natural Sciences Enhances abilities to define and solve problems, reason with an open mind, think critically and creatively, suspend judgment and make decisions that may have local or global significance.
6. Mathematics Expand understanding of mathematics beyond the entry-level requirements for college and extend knowledge through relevant mathematical modeling with applications, problem solving, critical thinking skills, and use of appropriate technologies.
7. Technological Literacy Understand the role of technology in society and possess the skills necessary to adapt to changing computer and information technologies.

B. Program Coordinator/Lead Instructor

Lead instructors are full-time faculty members who have the responsibility for the design and development of specific courses. Operational responsibilities for lead instructors include providing reference information and instructional aids and reviewing instructional plans and outcomes with other instructors of their assigned courses. In addition, program coordinators or lead instructors can provide guidance for working with students who have special interests or problems.

C. Master and Class Syllabi

The master syllabus describes the course objectives, instructional processes, expectations for student performance, content, instructional schedule, and plan of evaluation. This document presents the general plan of study for the semester and serves as a primary reference for the development of the class syllabus provided by the instructor to assist students in understanding the purpose and direction of the course, evaluate their progress and prepare for class. Master syllabi and syllabus development resources are posted at http://www.pstcc.edu/departments/adv/syllabi/

Adjunct and full-time faculty members are required to develop a class syllabus to be submitted to the dean prior to the first class (except in the Business and Computer Technology Department). The syllabus should be distributed and thoroughly reviewed with students during the first class meeting.

D. Textbook and Supplies

The lead instructor, program coordinator, or dean will supply each faculty member with a copy of required texts, a master syllabus for each assigned course, and a roll book. Incidental supplies (e.g. pens, notebooks, etc.) are available from the academic department office.

The instructor is required to use the textbook(s) specified on the syllabus as the main text(s) for the course. Supplemental texts may be assigned if they are readily available to students through Library Services or duplication that adheres to copyright laws.

E. Support and Communication

Each academic department has its own guidelines for clerical assistance in producing tests and other handouts. Computer accounts are provided for all faculty to produce their own documents, to communicate by e-mail with College personnel, to submit reports, and to access the Internet. All full-time and adjunct faculty members are required to check e-mail periodically. Training sessions for word processing, e-mail, attendance reporting and the Internet are available periodically throughout the academic year.

Access to computers and printers varies with location. At the Hardin Valley Campus, the dean or departmental office personnel can identify the most convenient computers and printers. At Division Street, Blount County, Magnolia Avenue, and Strawberry Plains faculty should contact the assistant dean in the central office for access information.

F. Keys

Adjuncts may request a general classroom key through their dean; this key will also unlock some general adjunct offices. For security purposes, labs and general lecture classrooms with instructor workstations are locked when an instructor or a lab assistant is not present. Adjunct faculty teaching labs and classrooms equipped with computers should request a key from the program coordinator or dean; until a key is issued, faculty must make arrangements with the program coordinator or dean. Adjunct faculty members who are issued keys are required to return them at the end of each semester.

For emergency entrance into locked rooms, faculty should contact Safety & Security or a campus administrator (the dean/assistant dean in the central office at Blount County, Division Street, Magnolia Avenue and Strawberry Plains; the dean or the program coordinator at the Hardin Valley Campus).

G. Reporting Requirements

All members of Pellissippi State faculty are required to keep records of class attendance and student performance and to participate in college-wide data-gathering efforts designed to improve instruction and service to students.

Attendance should be taken each period the course meets. Federal financial aid regulations require that each instructor report attendance at intervals specified by the College. Reports are submitted via Pellissippi State’s Web site; instructions are provided by e-mail each semester. Grade books, which include attendance records, should be turned into the department office at the end of each semester.

For planning and evaluation purposes, the College periodically requests that faculty gather information from students. Surveys and other requests are delivered to faculty mailboxes and should be completed as indicated by the instructions provided.

H. Library Services

Library Services supports the College's mission and instructional program by facilitating teaching and learning. Services and resources provided are designed to enhance the learning environment and to empower individuals for effective lifelong learning. Library Services encourages the academic and cultural growth of its users, and believes that its priority is fostering student achievement and intellectual curiosity. To support this aim, the library staff actively collaborates with faculty to ensure that the College's curricular areas are well supported by the library's collections and services.

Funds for the purchase of all print and non-print materials for all campus locations are placed in the Library Services budget. The selection of materials is a joint responsibility of the librarians and faculty members of the departments of instruction. Faculty and adjunct faculty are encouraged to recommend materials in support of their teaching activities. Faculty requests receive priority when purchasing materials. Materials are selected for inclusion in the Library's collection primarily on the basis of suitability of the materials to meet curricular needs of the individual departments of the College. The Library compiles a monthly listing of book and other materials added to the collection. This is available on the Library's web site http://www.pstcc.edu/library/

Research and enrichment resources are available at all site campus locations including Blount County, Division Street, Magnolia Avenue, and Strawberry Plains. Faculty needing instructional assistance may contact the Library Reference Desk or the ERC Coordinator. On-line resources are available at the Library's web-site http://www.pstcc.edu/library/.

The Library is located on the first and second floors of the ERC Building at the Hardin Valley Campus. The circulation desk, reserve room, and reference areas are located on the first floor. The second floor contains the Library's circulating collection of approximately 70,000 books, along with quiet seating areas and group study rooms for student use. At site locations, Library resources are housed and services are provided in the ERC at each location.

1. On-Line Catalog and Online Databases

The on-line catalog is available in the library at the Hardin Valley Campus, and in the ERC at all site campus locations. Access to the Library's catalog is also available from the Library's website at http://lib.pstcc.edu/books/. The on-line catalog provides access to books, eBooks, periodical titles, video and streaming video, and sound recordings and streaming sound recordings. It also provides 24/7 access to over 90,000 electronic books. Please see #6, "Ordering Library Materials," to recommend materials for the collection.

Access to the Library’s on-line databases is available at http://lib.pstcc.edu/databases. The Library subscribes to electronic databases that provide access to full text periodical titles in a variety of subject areas, to newspapers, digital encyclopedias and dictionaries. Your email username and password enable off campus access to the Library’s online resources. Subject Guides are available online, they provide an excellent starting point for research. Find them at http://libguides.pstcc.edu/.

2. Hours

Library hours and hours for the ERCs at site campus locations are posted at each location. Hours are also posted on the Library’s Web page http://lib.pstcc.edu/about_library/. The Library is closed for official College holidays. When classes are not in session, hours of operation may vary. To inquire about Library hours during breaks when classes are not in session, call the circulation desk (865-694-6516) or check the hours posted on the Web page.

3. Circulation of Materials

Books for general circulation are checked out to adjunct faculty, staff and students for two weeks; they may be renewed if a "hold" has not been placed on the material. Full-time faculty may check books out for a semester. Materials may be renewed by calling the Library's circulation desk.

Back issues of periodicals may be checked out for three days. The most current issues of periodicals may not be checked out. Periodicals may not be renewed, to ensure that these most recently published materials are accessible to the maximum number of users.

Reference materials are for use in the Library only. Copiers are available to photocopy needed materials. All materials are subject to recall. Overdue notices are sent as a courtesy. The first two notices are sent to borrower’s PSCC email accounts. It is the borrower’s responsibility to return or renew materials by the date indicated during checkout. There are no daily overdue fees; however, after two notices and a bill warning, all users, including students, adjunct faculty, regular faculty and staff are billed the replacement cost of the item plus a non-refundable administrative fee of $15 per book or $5 per periodical or non-catalogued paperback. If the material is returned after the bill is processed, a credit memo in the amount of the replacement cost only will be sent to the Business office. Processing fees will still be owed.

4. Reserves

Reserve desk services are available at the Library at Hardin Valley Campus and in the ERC at site campus locations. An instructor may request that materials be placed on reserve for use by specific classes. Reserve requests and materials to be placed on reserve should be delivered to the Library Services circulation desk for courses offered at the Hardin Valley Campus, or to the ERC service desk at the location offering the course at site campus locations. The request must include the class name and number, the instructor's name, loan period desired and specific instructions for its use. Instructors teaching at site campus locations may contact the circulation librarian at the Hardin Valley Campus or the ERC coordinator at the site for information about requesting books from the Library's collection for reserve at your location for the semester. Please allow 24 hours for processing of materials. Photocopied materials will be accepted for reserve and retained on reserve in compliance with copyright law. Please contact the circulation librarian for further information regarding the Library's reserve policies or copyright issues pertaining to reserve materials. Materials will be removed from reserve at the end of each semester unless the instructor provides notice to continue holding the materials on reserve. Request for continued placement of materials on reserve must meet copyright and fair use provisions of the copyright law. For further information, please call the circulation desk, or your satellite campus ERC.

5. Reference Service and Library Instruction
The Library's reference desk at Hardin Valley Campus is staffed 8 a.m. until closing Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. until closing on Saturday during fall and spring semesters. Hours are adjusted during summer sessions and may vary during interim periods and breaks. Reference service is available to all users from any campus location and from home. Call or visit the reference desk for assistance. Assistance is also accessible via the Ask A Librarian Web page, AskRef Live (chat), and the TextALibrarian (texting) services available via the Library's web site: http://lib.pstcc.edu/askref/.

Reference services include answering reference queries, assisting users with their research projects, developing subject specific bibliographies, and providing Library instruction to classes at instructor’s request for any College location. The Library houses a current reference collection consisting of approximately 7,000 volumes, including encyclopedias, dictionaries, directories and other resources pertaining to all areas of the College curriculum. A current core reference collection is also maintained at site campus ERCs. Electronic Reference database collections are available online.

Instructors who wish to schedule information literacy instruction at any of the College's campus locations may contact the Hardin Valley Campus library reference desk. Please provide some advanced notice to allow for preparation time and coordination of space and other instructional activities. Please provide information about the nature of the assignment, the desired learning outcomes, and approximate class size so that handouts can be prepared.

In addition to formal instruction, information literacy tutorials are available at the Library's Web site. Tutorials include information about conducting research, learning objects on the use of specific databases and guides on MLA and APA citation: http://lib.pstcc.edu/researchguides. Students taking ENGL 1010 also participate in a Library Information Literacy component that includes a class session, a D2L tutorial, online quizzes and assignment. The ENGL 1010 instructor can contact the Reference Desk to schedule this activity.

6. Ordering Library Materials
Instructors, including adjunct faculty, are encouraged to participate in the selection of books, periodicals and other appropriate materials for the Library's collection. Your expertise is an important, primary resource to ensure that the Library has current materials in all academic areas of the College’s curriculum for student research and enrichment activities. Materials are selected primarily on the basis of their suitability to meet the curricular needs of the College.

Instructors’ requests for books and other materials receive priority and are processed on a continuous basis. Periodical requests are reviewed to ascertain compatibility with the College’s curriculum, cost, and checked if available in full text via the Library’s databases. To place book, database, periodical or video orders, contact the librarian handling collection development in your subject area or the acquisitions/collection development librarian. See http://lib.pstcc.edu/faculty_services for a listing of Library liaisons and library materials request forms to fill out. Be sure to include your name should you wish to be notified once the item has been processed. Also, please indicate if an order is a rush order needed for an upcoming semester.

Interlibrary Loan: Books and periodicals not owned by the Library, but needed to complete research projects can be requested via interlibrary loan. Enrolled students and all faculty and staff can request interlibrary loan services. Interlibrary loan requests can be made in person or from the Library's web site at http://lib.pstcc.edu/circ; then select the "Interlibrary Loan" tab. Please allow 2-3 weeks for delivery of requested items. For further information contact the circulation desk.
Gifts: The same selection standards apply to gifts as to other materials in the Library's collections. The Library welcomes and encourages gifts of material; however, it reserves the right to make appropriate disposition of materials given to the College.

7. Borrowing Privileges at Other Libraries

Pellissippi State faculty, adjunct faculty, staff, and students have borrowing privileges at participating TBR and UT libraries. Borrowers are expected to comply with the lending library’s loan policies and are responsible for lost, damaged or overdue materials.

TBR/UT borrower's cards are available at the Library circulation desk at Hardin Valley Campus and at the ERC service desk at the site campus locations. The cards are available to currently enrolled students and currently employed faculty, adjunct faculty and staff only. Students not enrolled and adjunct faculty not employed during summer sessions are ineligible for a TBR/UT borrower's card during the summer. A valid Pellissippi I.D. and a photo I.D. are required for issuance of a borrower's card. For further information contact the circulation desk (865-694-6516).

8. Library Services at Site Campus Locations

Students and faculty at other campus locations are invited to use the Hardin Valley Campus library. In addition, library services are provided via the ERCs at all site campus locations. Library Services also have a formal agreement with the Blount County Public Library and provide the Blount County Library with a per-student fee for service to ascertain that students at Blount County are provided additional in-depth library services. Faculty and adjunct faculty are encouraged to make specific requests for purchases of books and for services by the Blount County Public Library to support their courses.

At each site, a current core reference collection is available to encourage student research and enrichment activities. A representative selection of books from the circulating collection is available to facilitate the experience of browsing. Subscriptions to a select number of popular magazines, journals and local newspapers are also available. The on-line catalog can be searched for books from the Pellissippi State collection and books can be requested for delivery within 24 - 48 hours. Electronic resources, most full-text, may be accessed in the ERCs at campus sites. Online resources are also accessible from home or other locations via the Library Web page. Interlibrary loan services are also available.

At site locations housing unique degree or certificate programs, the ERC houses circulating materials, reference materials, and periodical subscriptions in support of those programs. The Pellissippi State library staff welcomes your questions and suggestions concerning the provision of services. Please call or send an email to the director of Library Services (pnerzak@pstcc.edu) in regard to your recommendations or questions.

Educational Technology Services Center

Services Available

A wide variety of services are available in the Educational Technology Services Center. Professional personnel are available to assist patrons with special needs and creative ideas. To ensure that patrons receive a timely response, advance notice must be given for some services. An Educational Technology Services Center Service Request must be completed for some services (setting up equipment in the auditorium or cafeteria, arranging equipment for off-campus use, choral concert support, and other equipment that is to be used in the CPAC). To ensure that requests are received and scheduled, an Educational Technology Services Center Service Request must be sent to the Educational Technology Services Center by the requestor.

A. Audiovisual Equipment

Audiovisual equipment may be checked out for classroom use or college-related use off-campus. The following types of equipment are available:

- laptops
- multimedia projectors
- microphones
- projector screen
- digital cameras
- broadband aircard
- computer speakers
- portable PA System
- podium with PA system

B. Video Services
The College has limited professional video services available for faculty. Faculty can check out portable digital camcorders to record their classroom presentations. The Faculty Multimedia Studio has basic editing software for faculty media projects. More professional productions can be scheduled with ETS staff; however, these activities take time and require coordination and must be scheduled as far in advance as possible. Telecourses and semester-long courses and tutorials developed by PSCC instructors must be scheduled one semester in advance of when the course will be taught and must be coordinated through the Master Control Room staff.

C. Graphic Services/Presentation Services
Media personnel are available to assist faculty with graphics production related to instructional use. ETS staff can help faculty organize and develop presentations. Advance notice is also required for this service.

D. Teleconferences
Pellissippi State has the capability to receive teleconferences broadcast on KU and C bands. Arrangements for teleconferences must be made in advance and should be submitted on an Educational Technology Services Center request form.

The Educational Technology Services Center can record programs broadcast over satellite transmission if copyright permissions allow for recording of the programming.

E. Media Collection
Educational Technology Services maintains an extensive media collection for faculty use. Faculty and staff may check out materials for college-related use. Students cannot check out media materials; however, faculty may check out materials for student use. Faculty will be responsible for returning these materials in a timely manner.

The Educational Technology Services Center closely adheres to copyright laws. Some companies allow us to make archival copies of materials but some do not grant this privilege. The same video title cannot be used at three locations at the same time because this violates copyright law. Copies of multimedia materials will be made only after the Educational Technology Services Center has received written approval from the producer/vendor of the multimedia/video/CD.

Funds are allocated annually for adding to this collection. Faculty may request that additional titles be added to the video collection by making these requests to the director of Educational Technology Services.

F. Distance Learning Services
Educational Technology Services personnel are available to help faculty plan for two-way audio/video courses, telecourses, and web courses. Services include course re-design, training on the use of technology, course management system, training, telecourse production, telecourse preview, and multimedia development.

Usage Regulations

A. Use of Audiovisual Equipment in Classrooms/Labs
A request to use audiovisual equipment in classrooms/labs should be communicated to Educational Technology Services Center personnel in advance of the need. This will ensure availability of equipment and maintenance of the equipment. Staff are unable to deliver equipment to classrooms/labs; however, faculty may come to the Educational Technology Services Center to check out equipment. Educational Technology Services Center personnel will provide operating instructions for faculty and staff who are unfamiliar with the equipment. Equipment must be returned on the same day it is checked out unless other arrangements are approved. Equipment must be returned to the Educational Technology Services Center at the specified time. Failure to return equipment creates problems for other faculty members who have reserved the equipment. Audiovisual equipment and materials are available for evening use through advanced reservation and notice. If the equipment and/or materials will be returned after 7:00 p.m. the user must go to the Safety & Security Office in the Goins Building for an escort to the Educational Technology Services area where the materials can be stored securely.

B. Laptop Checkout Guidelines
Educational Technology Services (ETS) maintains a small pool of laptops and broadband (air) cards for checkout to faculty and staff for college-related work while traveling and to support college-related presentations and events locally. Due to the increased use of this pool, ETS is implementing the following guidelines.
1. Local Use: For college-related presentations and events, faculty and staff may check out a laptop and/or broadband card for one (1) day. Longer checkout times may be arranged with advanced notice by the employee’s supervisor depending on current availability of equipment.

2. School-Related Travel: For college-related travel, faculty and staff may check out a laptop and/or broadband card for seven (7) days. Longer checkout times may be arranged with advanced notice by the employee’s supervisor depending on current availability of equipment.

3. Late Returns: If an employee returns equipment late more than two times, ETS reserves the right to cancel check out privileges.

ETS is happy to provide this service for faculty and staff and we appreciate everyone’s understanding and adherence to these guidelines so that we can provide equitable support for the college’s staff.

C. Use of Multimedia Consoles in the Classroom

Most classrooms and labs are equipped with a multimedia console installed and supported by the Educational Technology Services Center. This console provides for projected images from computers, document cameras, DVD players, VHS players and other media devices. Instructions for operating the consoles are located in each classroom as well as on the ETS web site.

D. Use of the Digital Signage system

Educational Technology Services maintains the Digital Signage system for the college. Messages and announcements can also be shown college-wide as well as sent to specific campuses or buildings at the Hardin Valley Campus. The director of Marketing & Communications must approve announcements before displaying on the system. To allow for the approval process and signage design, all announcements must be requested at least three (3) days in advance via an online form provided by Marketing & Communications department at http://www.pstcc.edu/mc/event.html.

Network and Technical Services Department

The Network and Technical Services Department is responsible for providing computer support services to the College. The support services offered encompass a range of activities which include the following:

1. Maintaining and upgrading computing equipment in computer labs; maintaining computing equipment in offices
2. Maintaining a Helpdesk and providing for software support in open labs
3. Providing operating supplies such as toner for the computer labs
4. Managing computer accounts on the College computer systems

The Information Technology Support Center is the contact point for Network and Technical Services. For computer support contact the Helpdesk by phone (694-6537) or by sending an e-mail to HELPDESK.

Services for Site Campus Locations

Library, ETS, Academic Support Center, and Testing Center services are available at site campus locations. To ascertain which services are available check with the ERC coordinator at your site or with Educational Technology Services, the Academic Support Center, or the Testing Center staff, or the Library Services staff.

Site campus ERCs have audiovisual and computer equipment available. Faculty needing to use audiovisual material should contact the ETS a minimum of three working days in advance for the material to arrive via the campus courier. Be sure to return the material via the campus courier service as soon as possible for its continued availability and use. Faculty may come to the Hardin Valley Campus to pick up material at the ETS counter (Goins 242) if preferred. ● College Level Examination Program (CLEP), Advanced Placement (AP) and DANTES

Credit may be awarded as a result of performance on CLEP tests, DANTES tests, or Advanced Placement Tests. Check the testing center website for acceptable CLEP/DANTES scores and acceptable AP subject areas for college credit.

● Credit by Examination

Students who believe their prior academic or work experience fulfills requirements for a particular course may request permission to receive credit for the course through taking an examination, in lieu of attending the course. Applicants desiring to obtain credit by successfully completing departmentally designed examinations must enroll in the course, apply to the appropriate department and provide evidence of eligibility.

● Testing Center

Students who miss an exam in class, need extended testing time, are working under an independent study program or who are taking a video distance learning or www class may take the tests in the Testing Center. The Federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act and the Tennessee College and University Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act of 2002

The Federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act and the Tennessee College and University Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act of 2002 require that whenever a sex offender becomes employed, enrolls as a student or volunteers at an institution of higher education in the state of Tennessee, he or she must complete or update the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) sexual offender registration/monitoring form and deliver it to TBI headquarters in Nashville. As defined in section 40-39-102 of the Tennessee Code a "sexual offender" means a person who is, or has been, convicted in this state of committing a sexual offense or who is, or has been, convicted in another state or country, or who is or has been convicted in federal or military court, of committing an act which would have constituted a sexual offense if it had been committed in this state. A "sexual offense" means the commission of acts including, but not limited to, aggravated and statutory rape, sexual battery, sexual exploitation of a minor, aggravated prostitution and kidnapping.

Both acts designate certain information concerning a registered sexual offender as public information and therefore amend and supersede the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and other federal and state laws that previously prohibited the disclosure of such personal information. Since the laws require the publication of information pertaining to sexual offenders employed, enrolled, or volunteering at an educational institution, said publication does not constitute grounds for a grievance or complaint under institutional or Tennessee Board of Regents policies or procedures.

In compliance with the Federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act and the Tennessee College and University Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act of 2002, members of the campus community may obtain the most recent information received from the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) concerning sex offenders employed, enrolled, or volunteering at this institution. This information is available in the Safety and Security office.

Information is also available on the TBI's website listing of sex offenders: http://www.tbi.state.tn.us/sex_ofender_reg/sex_ofender_reg.shtml
