Is My Book Overdue?

Library Services will email overdue notices for library materials kept past the due date. Sending notices via email allows the library to save both paper and postage.

First and second level overdue notices will be delivered to your Pellissippi State email account. Third notices and bills for materials not returned after 30 days will continue to be mailed in paper format to your address on file.

What can your library do for you?

Pellissippi State students, faculty, and staff have access to over 70,000 books; 300+ periodicals; 60,000+ electronic books; 1000+ eAudio books; 60+ electronic databases; and a friendly staff of librarians and ERC coordinators who can assist you in your research needs.

To see these featured databases and a complete list of our Online Databases, visit the Library's website and select the Databases A-Z link. <http://lib.pstcc.edu/databases>

April is National Poetry Month

Literature Resource Center

The LRC provides access to biographical, bibliographical and critical analysis of authors from every age and literary discipline. Supporting a comprehensive, interdisciplinary approach, it covers more than 130,000 novelists, poets, essayists, journalists, and other writers. This database explores biographical information, literary criticism, historical context, and social implications from a wide variety of literary sources.

Poetry for Students

This database offers online full-text access to Poetry for Students. Each volume gives an analysis of approximately 20 poems identifying the most frequently studied in literature courses. Entries include an overview essay, an analysis of the poem's construction and form, a thematic explanation, a brief author biography, selected criticism on the poem or poet, and more!

New Books! The Library posts a list of newly purchased books each month. To view a complete list of new books purchased lately, visit the Library's home page <http://www.pstcc.edu/library> . Once there, select the What's New link in the Quick Links area on the right of the page. You may also visit the Pellissippi campus Library to peruse the New Books shelf near the Reference Desk.

If you are at a satellite campus and want to check out that new book, go to the Online Catalog, find the book title, print out the title record page, and bring it to the ERC circulation desk. We will request the book from the appropriate Library/ERC. In most cases, the material will arrive in 1-2 business days!
