What’s New at the Library

Peter Nerzak and Jennifer Mezick
PSCC In-Service 2013

http://www.pstcc.edu/library  http://lib.pstcc.edu/databases
• Over 1,000 complete scripts.
• Many previously unpublished scripts.
• Detailed information on scenes and characters.
• More than 500 scripts display as facsimiles.
• All-inclusive archive of National Geographic magazine.
• Also includes books, maps, videos, images, and other periodicals published by National Geographic.
• Ability to search for text and images.
• Thousands of complete streaming videos.
• Multidisciplinary.
• Award-winning films, documentaries, raw footage, interviews, field recordings, reels, performances, and commercials.
• ADA compliant, providing text synchronized with streaming videos.
• Create and export citations in various style formats.
• Organize sources for research papers and create outlines.
• Annotate sources to help avoid plagiarism.

http://libguides.pstcc.edu/easybib
Library Orientation Tutorial

• Introduces students to:
  – library resources and services
  – using the library catalog
  – using library databases
  – evaluating sources
  – avoiding plagiarism

• Can be assigned for credit.
• Replaces D2L library instruction for Engl 1010.
• Incorporates videos and unit quizzes.
• Self-paced.

http://libguides.pstcc.edu/libraryorientation