Annual Student Juried Art Exhibition

Prepare to be visually awed by this exhibit, featuring a wide array of art, from drawings to paintings to sculptures, all by Pellissippi State art students. The exhibition runs from March 27th-April 14th with an opening reception and award ceremony on Monday, March 27th from 4-6pm.

Gender Revolution

A screening of a documentary that is in conjunction with the January issue of National Geographic's "Gender Revolution". Produced by Katie Couric, it follows the life of a 9-year-old transgender girl. The film will last 1 hour and 32 minutes and will be shown March 22 and 28 in the GN Auditorium.

A Thinking World

Einstein Simplified, a Knoxville Improv group will present on "A Thinking World: Comedy in Logical Fallacies and the Truth in Critical Thinking" in conjunction with the Common Academic Experience's year-long focus on successful argumentation. This event is free and open to students, staff, faculty, and friends of Pellissippi State.

Homeless Student Scholarship

Homeless Student Scholarship is a fund to help homeless students continue their education. This fund will help homeless students with their books, supplies, and tuition. You can lend your support to "Homeless Student Scholarship," by contacting: Pellissippi State Foundation <http://giving.pstcc.edu>
